DISCUSS PLAYER LIMIT

L. and D. Executive Sated To Meet Wednesday Night.

A meeting of the executive of the London and District is scheduled for the armory on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

The biggest item slated for discussion, and a very important one for the association this year, will be the player limit. The clubs seem evenly divided in sentiment, and the outcome is of real interest to every club, hence the urgent request that all members of the executive make a point of attending.

DUNN SIGNS BATTERY.

ST. CATHARINES, Feb. 27.—Manager Jack Dunn of the Baltimore Orioles has signed up the battery of last year's Toronto, Ont., team in the Niagara District League, Paul Herb, pitcher, and Eddie Manley, catcher. Both are now attending the Niagara University, Niagara Falls, N.Y. Their homes are in Toronto.

That the Detroit club is hard pressed for infield material is proved by the fact the Tigers claimed the veteran George Cutshaw for the second year after all the other National League clubs had waived on him. Cutshaw had a pretty fair year with the Pirates in 1921.

A Danger Warning

—Bleeding Gums

Are your gums tender? Do they bleed when brushed? If so—watch out for Pyorrhea.

This disease of the gums, which afflicts four out of five people over forty, not only destroys the teeth, but often wrecks the health.

In Pyorrhea, the gums become spongy, then recede; the teeth decay, loosen and fall out—must be extracted to rid the system of the infecting Pyorrhea germs which breed in pockets about them. These germs lower the body's vitality and cause many diseases.

You can keep Pyorrhea away. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums prevents Pyorrhea—or checks its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean.

Start using it today. If your gums have receded, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

George Young scored the only tally of the fixture, with but five minutes to go after both teams had battled on even terms for two scoreless periods.

"Yorkie" Richardson handled the game.

TERRIERS HOLD TIGERS

Galt and Hamilton Battled 70 Minutes to 4-4 Tie.

GALT, Feb. 27.—The local Terriers battled 70 minutes with the Hamilton Tigers (centres) to a tie of 4 to 4 in an exhibition game here tonight. The Galt boys had the best of the play, and while missing some nice chances, Stewart saved two goals by throwing himself on ice. Jack Brown, a local player, was on the ice only five minutes in the second period when in turning to get a loose puck he slipped and in the fall broke his left collar bone. He was removed to the hospital. The locals led in first period, 3 to 1; at the end of the second, 3 to 2, but in the final visit, Galt tied the score, but took the lead, and with only half a minute to go Punch George evened the score, but without scoring.

Catcher Eddie Gharbity of the Washington club has developed into one of the most dangerous batters in the American League. He is noted for his extra base hits.

PRESTON RUSHED INDIANS

Came Back With Big Bid For Game In Third Period.

EXETER, Feb. 27.—The Exeter-Zurich combination took a fall out of Lucknow here tonight, beating them 5 to 1 in the opening N. H. L. game. The smallest crowd of the season witnessed a remarkable demonstration of goal-minding on the part of the visitors' goalkeepers. Held after the first two goals were scored, tightened up like a drum. STRAFORD, Feb. 27.—In a game which presented some excitement, even if lacking in some of the finer points of the game, Stratford defeated Preston 2 to 1. The locals won the first two periods, but fell back badly in the third, and had a close call from a trimming on the play in the last period. Preston would have won out had there been longer time. Ketterborne carried the honors for the Indians, scoring five of the seven goals, and Morenz got the other two. For Preston, Schelgel and Clark did the scoring. A free-for-all was nearly witnessed in the second period, and a few penalties struck Norfolk, the local goalie, Berger came to Norfolk's rescue, and soon the fourteen players and some of the fans were in a heap on the ice. Order was finally restored and a few reminders of the melee.

REDMEN WIN 6-5

Paisley Victims of Northerners In Senior N. H. L. Clash.

PAISLEY, Feb. 27.—Wharton Northern League seniors have triumphed 6 to 5 in the semi-final fixture here tonight. The men from the Georgian Bay were 2 to 0 to the lead at the end of the first period, and this game was down as the best of the season so far. Western U. Co. led 2 to 0, and had the lead in the second, though, and had the third with something of their real form.

Matheson of Owen Sound refereed the game.

IMPRES ARE SURPRISE

Gave Thistles Hard 15-12 Game In Y. W. C. A. League.

The Y. W. C. A. Girls' League staged two good games at the Western U. gym last night.

Smallman and Ingram Imps furnished a surprise when they held the fast Thistles to a close 15 to 12 verdict in the first game, and this game was down as the best of the season so far.

Western U. Co. led 2 to 0, and had the lead in the second, though, and had the third with something of their real form.

Since Frank Baker will soon permanently retire from the majors, the New York Americans intend to give Glenn Killinger, the famous Penn State star, every chance to make good at that position.

Without a question, shortstop is the most difficult position on the ball field. A good shortstop must not only have ability but brains as well. There was never a great shortstop who couldn't think.

A majority of the plays on the infield have the infielders figuring in their execution. Little things often lose ball games. Many a game is lost because of the failure to properly execute double plays.

All of which lead up to the reason why the Washington club should be a factor in the American League race this season. It is strong at short and second.

The acquisition of Peckinpaugh makes Washington a contender. There is no better shortstop in either major league than Peckinpaugh. Stanley Harris at second need bow to no one but Eddie Collins.

Pitching, however, doesn't get very Mutt and Jeff.

There are a number of other good infields in the two leagues, but it is doubtful if any of them will quite measure up to the standard set by the Giants.

The addition of McInnes to Cleveland will greatly strengthen the Indians' defence. His presence will do much to steady Sewell and Wambamans.

The Washington infield is a real combination now that the Nationals have acquired Peckinpaugh. Joe Judge at first, the brilliant Harris at second, Shanks at third and Peck at short make a great defence.

There have been few great ball teams that have lacked high-class men at short and second.

Pitching is conceded by most experts to be 70 per cent of a team's strength. There is no denying the great value of pitching.

Gibson Piloted Leonard to a Title

BILLY GIBSON, who directs the destinies of Champion Benny Leonard, is one of the wisest managers in the fight game.

Gibson, by excellent judgment in handling the affairs of Leonard, getting a top-notch price for every bout, has made a fortune for the fighter and himself.

Gibson took Leonard long before he reached the championship class. He saw great possibilities in him, however, brought him along slowly and made a champion out of him.

Gibson picked on Champion Freddy Welsh at a time when Welsh was slipping rapidly. For a year prior to the bout with Welsh, promoters had tried to match Leonard and the champion.

The dates selected for such bouts, it happened, never suited Gibson. They always seemed to interfere with some other bout that Gibson had planned.

As a matter of fact Gibson was really biding his time, waiting for the logical spot to arrange the match that carried with it the championship.

Johnny Kilbane's fight with Welsh decided Gibson. Kilbane gave Welsh a stiff battle. Welsh's showing convinced Gibson that Leonard was his master.

He arranged the bout, Leonard knocked Welsh out in the ninth round, winning the championship.

Every player in the two major leagues is now anxiously awaiting the arrival of his contract. It is needless to say that all of them expect a raise. The fancy prices paid to minor league clubs for recruit players is the cause.

If the club owners are paying such prices merely to beat the income tax, why not share some of it with the players, who will be willing to slip a little of it to the government? It is the way one of the stars puts it.

START MNFRS. PLAY-OFF

Tonight London Six Meet McClary; Bell vs. D. S. Perrins.

The play-off series arranged for the Manufacturers will be continued again tonight with the regular draw adhered to. London Six meet McClary, league leaders, in the first game, and Bell Telephone clash with Perrins in the second.

Last Thursday night's games, which were postponed because of soft weather, will be played this Thursday.

Civil Service meet Jones and Grand Trunk Standard Drugs mix it in this bill.

These tag-end affairs have brought the Manufacturers' League to a high pitch of excitement, and some upsets are in order.
