Coughs, Colds, Croup BRONCHITIS

MOTHER!

Open Child's Bowels with "California Fig Syrup"

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" ably be introduced; that he would ste of "California Fig Syrup." If work in its favor in the federal coune little tongue is coated, or if your cil (as indeed he did in a brilliant, hild is listless, cross, feverish, full compelling speech) and also other f cold, or has colic, give a teaspoonful to cleanse the liver and bowels. n a few hours you can see for yourelf how thoroughly it works all the difference, since they had been doing nstipation poison, sour bile and vaste out of the bowels, and you ave a well, playful child again. Millions of mothers keep "Califor ia Fig Syrup" handy. They know a spoonful today saves a sick child omorrow. Ask your druggist for as directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" r you may get an imitation fig yrup.-Advt.

CORNS

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! ses, without soreness or irritation

WHAT IS

Many Times It's a Guide to Health as is This One

Women-Read It

Marmion, Ontario.—"Before using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com-pound I was a total wreck. I had terrible pains in my sides and was not regular. Finally I got so weak I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest half way up. I saw your medicine advertised in the apens and gave it a trial. I sottles of the Vegetable compound and was restored to ealth. I am married, am the other of two children and do all housework, milk eight cows and to a hired man's work and enjoy the best of health. I also found the egetable Compound a great help for my weak back before my babies were born. I recommend it to all Letters which you read in the s recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound are genuine expressions from women who have been helped by this eplendid medicine. They are anxlous for other women, who may be saffering as they did, to know of Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Aliments Peculiar te Women" will be sent you free upon quest. Write Lydia E. Pinkham edicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

-MRS. HENRY JANKE,

my friends."

rmion. Ontario.

When your child is restless, peevish, sleepless, or when convulsions threaten, it indicates the ravages of worms and that the little one's strength is being apped and undermined. Miller's Worm Powders get promptly at the root of the trouble and restore the digestive organs to

CHAMBERLAINS The Kaiser's Memoirs

By WILHELM VON HOHENZOLLERN,

spected greatly, as he was the very government!* model of an aristocrat citizen of a Hanseatic city, and who had often been consulted by me in political matters. I described to him the entire course of the affairs and the disputes in Berlin as to the introduction or non-introduction of the bill, and asked him then to tell me, with his usual complete frankness, what he thought the right thing to do in the interest of the national welfare, since I greatly desired to hear an objective opinion, uninfluenced by the rival camps of Berlin. Dr. Burchard replied in his clear, keen, pointed, convincing manner that lit was my duty toward the people and that whosoever spoke against its in-the Fatherland to stick to the bill; troduction was committing a sin against them; that whatever we thought necessary to our defen e must be unconditionally brought into eing; that, above all else, we must never permit a foreign country to feint to make us drop the naval bill; that this must in no circumstances. allowed: that the German nation would not understand why its right of self-determination had been sacriiced; that the bill must unquestionwise press its acceptance in Berlin; that the English would naturally resort to abuse, but that this made no so for a long time; that they certainly would not get into a war for such a cause; that Admiral von Tirpitz was merely doing his duty and fulfilling his obligations; and that I should support him in every way; that the nuine "California Fig Syrup" which risk of finally forfeiting public esteem sole purpose of hampering the detree, as it used to be done once upon on account of being "pro-English."

seatic spirit inspired his words. offer has recently been corroborated eliciting one word of protest from times are scattered about by him to me in Holland by a Dutchman who England. And Germany, wedged in from the saddle. This, of course, is heard from Englishmen at that time between France and Russia, certainly particularly customary at the outset urbed, was a political manoeuvre. Counter-Charges of Cheating. the reverse was true, one can but protect it the fleet was necessary. thank Admiral von Tirpitz most sin-of our Fatherland. ou lift it right off with fingers. Truly! stepped out of the vault in the Char-

a visit to Herr von Bethmann in his defence conditions, recruiting, gen- of affairs as a foundation, I sought garden, I found him quite overcome and holding in his hand a message the ministry of war, where the min- having a Mohammedan prince chosen from London. It contained the entire ister, General von Elnom, personally if possible—perhaps an Egyptian by Cassel, the withdrawal of the offer neutrality, as well as of every other Strength from Ironized Yeast Simply Glorious!

It Follows a Natural Law Which Never Changes or Fails. The Entire Body Quickly Feels New Power!

"Twe just about gone to pieces!" Do you know that getting back strength is comparatively easy? But do you realize that it is almost impossible to get back your strength by means of unnatural drugs? Do fadam, Ironized Yeast Will Build You Up Amazingly and Quickly! Madam, Ironized Yeast Will Build You Up Amazingly and Quickly!

you know that about one woman out of every three is exhausted because of nerve and blood starvation? The remarkable power of yeast-vitamines-ironized has been proven. There is now no further excuse for being weak, sick, run-down. Ironized Yeast contains the tremendous natural building forces of vitamines and iron, and it builds and strengthens in half the usual time. Do you know why? Ironized Yeast is not a mere mixture of yeast and iron, but yeast ironized, which is a substance all by itself. That's what makes Ironized Yeast the most powerful, natural builder in the world today. You will find a new strength coming over you, your cheeks will get rosy, your eyes sparkle, your appetite will be sharp, you will digest what you eat, your blood will become rich, your energy will be more than equal to your ambition. Get a package of Ironized Yeast today, and beware of substitutes. Sold at all drug stores at $1.00 a package. Each package contains 60 tablets, each tablet is sealed. They never lose their power. Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Lid., Toronto, Sales Agents. Health and strength are now up to you.

gth are now up to you.

(Former Emperor of Germany) THE fight over the German naval offer, and at the end the advice that I bill grew steadily hotter. I hap-should not dismiss Herr von Bethpened at this time to meet at Cux- mann from the imperial chancellor-

> In the manuscript as received by The Times the words "should not" are omitted, and the passage reads that England advised Bethmann's dismissal from the chancellorship. This seems to be a clerical error. It appears not only from Tirpitz's book, but from the ex-kaiser's own Comparative Historical Tables published last year, that the recommendation, in whatever form or language, was really that Bethmann be retained, as given in the amended text above. Haldane while in Berlin had got the impression that Bethmann was likely to be dismissed in the dispute over the naval bill and replaced by Tirpitz, which probably explains the British action.

Tears of anger shone in the eyes have the presumption to interfere in his hopes; the praise accorded to peculiarities and the customs of the with us; that the English offer was a him by a foreign government with inhabitants. which Germany and he had just had In this peculiar land there has such painful experiences, hurt him never been any united nation under deeply. For the second time he of- one ruler and one dynasty. In valleys, fered me his resignation; I did not ac- encircled and cut off by high mouncept it, but sought to console him. I tain ranges, the Albanian tribes live then ordered that the ambassador in separated to a considerable degree London be asked how he could have from each other. Their political sysaccepted and forwarded such a message under any conditions.

Now, the chancellor was in favor of he bill, but it was honorably proposed numbers. with the limitation which it had been decided to impose upon it in case of ancient one, sanctified by tradition, England, on the other hand, the full cattle stealing. Agriculture is still naval construction program was ca:- in a backward stage of development,

This "Haldane episode" is chara : teristic of England's policy. This the flood. chancellor must give up opposing the whole manoeuvre, conceived on a The head man of the clan dispenses measure, otherwise he would run the large scale, was engineered for the justice in the open, under the village velopment of the German fleet, while, a time among the ancient Germans. Thus spoke the representative of simultaneously, in America-which Every man is armed and most are he great commercial city, which was had an almost negligible merchant excellent shots. Whenever the head threatened before all others in case of fleet; in France—whose navy was man of the clan turns up while on war with England. The genuine Han-superior in numbers to the German; a horseback tour through his terriin Italy, in Russia-which also had tory in some hamlet, the inhabitants Strangely enough, this opinion of ships built abroad—vast construction expect a blessing from him in the Dr. Burchard concerning the English programs were carried out without form of jingling coins, which somein England; that, according to information received, a dispute had arisen about the agreement; that there was as ours, and assuring England's superiority and security, to equal the strength of which no sensible man in Germany ever dreamed. We needed by Tirpitz! This was plain evidence by Tirpitz! This was plain evidence our fleet for coast defense and the centage in the diplomatic corps and pitz had not walked into the trap and simply let the bill drop, and that Haldane had been unable to serve up the mines, were not sufficient. In addiSultan, which scarcely had an equal recommendations especially with rebill to the English cabinet on a platter tion, the coast batteries on the Baltic for size, martial appearance and gard to his residence, which should enjoy association with this refreshing at teating It is useless to say that at teatime. It is useless to say that were so antiquated and miserably manly beauty. These were partly be fixed at some point as far as posat teatime. It is useless to say that there was any "cheating" on Germany's part, but the reproach leveled at Haldane justifies the suspicion that his instructions were that he should his instructions were that he should seek to "cheat" the Germans. Since

Defends Naval Program.

The Skagerrak (Jutland) battle has proved what the fleet meant and what everything that might serve to inhe German standpoint to the benefit it was worth. That battle would fluence the feelings of the Albanian Toward the end of March the fight if the Reichstag had not refused up banians which reached him by this about the bill took on such violence to 1900 all proposals for strengthenreezone" on an aching corn, instantly that finally the chancellor, on the nat corn stops hurting, then shortly 22nd, asked me for his dismissal as I were destined never to be retrieved. Before we take our leave of Hal-

> German government, to Berlin, to in- of "family ties." When, some time afterward, I paid form himself concerning the Prussian world war, the "pro-German" Haldane, the friend of Goethe, was boycotted and treated with such hostilhimself in public, he had a defense written of his term of office as minister of war by the well-known literateur and journalist, Mr. Begbie, entitled "Vindication of Great Britain." Therein his services toward forming regular general staff and preparing the British army for the world war are placed in a bright light and emphasis is laid on the skill with which he utilized the permission obtained from the Prussian war ministry in order to learn in Germany about military matters and to reorganize the British army and general staff, to the minutest detail and on the German model, for the coming war against the erstwhile

Here we see the sly, adroit lawyer who, sheltered under the hospitality of a foreign country, studies its military arrangements in order to forge weapons against it out of the material and knowledge thus acquired. Quite characteristically the book is dedicated to King Edward VII., whose intimate, emissary and tool Haldane was. In those days Berlin saw in CZEMA ment for Eczema and Skin Irritations. It relieves at once and gradually heals the skin. Sample box Dr. 's Ointment free if you mention this and send 2c. stamp for postage. 60c. a

Cure Her Rheumatism

Knowing from terrible experience the suffering caused by rheumatism, Mrs.
J. E. Hurst, who lives at 608 E. Douglas St., C-84, Bloomington, Ill., is so thankful at having cured herself that out of pure gratitude she is anxious to tell all other sufferers just how to get rid of their torture by a simple way at home.

Carmen Sylva (the Queen of Rumania) also worked toward having him accept; she went so far, in fact, as to publish an article in the newspapers beginning "Fairyland wants its prince."

So even the best meant warnings

Mrs. Hurst has nothing to sell. Merely mail your own name and address, and she will gladly send you this valuable information entirely free. Write her at once before you forget,—Advt.

war, which Haldane helped to prepare; in this case Haldane "cheated" the Germans! That is the history of the Haldane mission. Later it was summarily maintained by all sorts of ignorant haven Dr. von Burchard, president ship since he enjoyed to a marked de-dabblers in politics, belonging to the of the Hamburg senate, whom I re- gree the confidence of the British press and the general public, that the promising "rapprochement" with England through Haldane had been wrecked by the obstinacy of the emperor and Admiral von Tirpitz and by their clinging to the naval bill against the wishes of all "sensible Kingship of Albania. At that time (in 1912) the quesa crown had already presented themselves before the tribunal of the work against his interests, to give backward body. I had already had backward body. I had already had backward body. powers, without getting themselves accepted; a number of candidates, lagainst him. considered by the powers, were declined by the Albanians. I looked upon the matter in itself with indifference, and was of the opinion that of a nation"-the greatest possible attention should be paid to historical tem is not unlike the clan system of the Scotch. Christians and Mohammedans are represented in equal

The custom of "vendetta" is an the conclusion of the agreement. In which is no less true of robbers and farming is in its infancy, the implements used therein date from before the English point of view. I and III- had to be at least property of men pitz guessed right—the offer of neu- herself on the water against those na- great is the dissatisfaction when it adapted to this sort of life might does not happen.

Up to the time of the Balkan war Soon news also came from Berlin that the matter was not going well in England; that, according to information received a dispute had arisen protection of our commerce; for this the army. The young Albanian nobles like U-boats, torpedo-boats and company af palace guards of the study this pamphlet and to follow its coast was practically defenseless. To by blood brotherhood—might be safe banians that their ruler needed these Prussia, the great reform which placed the lend on a sound basis and helped and, also, that he might find out jects. Did the prince ever read the have meant annihilation for England chieftains. The desires of the Al- contrary to its advice and the adroad-for instance, as to supplies of arms and ammunition, schoolhouses, building of highways, etc.-were Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of lottenburg Park. After long consul- dane I wish to touch upon another ous manner. Thus the Sultan was enthereupon granted in an inconspicu-Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient tation and after I had told him Dr. episode in his activities. In 1906 abled to keep the usually turbulent remove every hard corn, soft corn, Burchard's view, the chancellor with- he came, with the permission of the Albanians quiet and loyal by means

With this knowledge of the state eral staff, etc. He busied himself at to bring my influence to bear toward gave him information. After about prince-not forgetting that he should pagus of the powers," whose members were not bothering themselves with the interests of the Albanians way as to benefit their own coun-

Opposed Choice of German. Therefore, I was not at all pleased matter, also, I gave honest advice when the choice fell upon Prince when questioned, based on sound William of Wied. I esteemed him as knowledge of mankind. a distinguished, knightly man of this thorny task with hope of sucmake a fool of himself there, since it with each other in evidences questioned by the prince I told my cousin all my doubts, laying stress upon the difficulties awaiting him, and advised him urgently to decline. I could not command him, since the Prince of Wied, as head of the family, had the final word in the matter. After the prince's acceptance of the candidacy offered him by the

are no powers, I received him in the presirresolution in the bearing of the prince, who contemplated his new task with anything but enthusiasm, strengthened the resolve in me and the chancellor to try hard once more to dissuade the young candidate from ascending the recently-invented Albanian "throne." But in vain. The the prince saw in Albania the fulfillment of her wishes. And "ce que femme veut, Dieu le veut" (what woman wishes, God wishes).

Haldane's mission a "rapprochement" which had led me to suggest the with England, toward which Germans were always bending their efforts; in reality, however, it was a "reconnoitring expedition," under the very ply him with a "donation," concerning the German cousin. England in the splendid canal netselection of a rich ruler now came to the old school, who fitted in so well with me that he always grasped my lideas and suggestions and afterward late of the ever more hard-pressed railways. In the World War we might have had hohenzoll carried them out with energy and power, a splendid east-to-west artery of transport of the German cousin. England in Holland and the splendid canal network of France had brought to those with me that he always grasped my lideas and suggestions and afterward late of the old school, who fitted in so well with me that he always grasped my lideas and a suggestions and afterward late of the old school, who fitted in so well with me that he always grasped my lideas and a suggestions and afterward late of the old school, who fitted in so well with me that he always grasped my lideas and a suggestions and afterward late of the old school, who fitted in so well with me that he always grasped my lideas and a suggestions and afterward late of the old school, who fitted in so well with me that he always grasped my lideas and suggestions and afterward late of the old school, who fitted in so well with me that he always grasped my lideas and a suggestion and afterward late of the old school, who fitted in so well with me that he always grasped my lideas and suggestions and afterward late of the old school, who fitted in so well with me that he always grasped my lideas and suggestions and afterward late of the old school, who fitted in so well with me that he always grasped my lideas and suggestions and afterward late of the old school, who fitted in so well with me that he always grasped my lideas and late of the old school, who fitted in so well with me that he always grasped my lideas and late o roof of the German cousin. England showed her gratitude by the world method of paying it by installments, man of fron energy and unflagging man of the carried them out with energy and power, a spicified east-to-west artery of trains of trains and power, a spicified east-to-west artery of trains of trains and the showed her gratitude by the world method of paying it by installments, man of fron energy and unflagging material, supplies in them. A portation for ammunition, wounded, the waiting the world method of paying it by installments, man of fron energy and unflagging material, supplies in them. an unpleasant quarrel arose. At last a part payment was made.

Danger lurked for the prince and his eventual government in the person of Essad Pasha, an unreliable, intriguing, greedy soldier of fortune, who himself had designs on the Albanian throne and held sway over a certain number of armed adherents. From the start he was an opponent of the new prince and he plotted secretly with Italy, which was not aroused the admiration of the whole favorably inclined toward the Prince of Wied. Now, it would have been quite natural and a matter of course if the new ruler had taken with him tion of the establishment of an in-dependent Albanian state and the he knew and who were faithful to cided improvement which received my choice by the powers of a head for him. But he did not. An English- approval and support. it, was brought to my attention also. man and an Italian were attached to A number of candidates lusting for his person as "secretaries" and they

During the time that the Prince of Wied was making his preparations dealing with his travels in Albania, of the chancellor, thus badly deceived development, also to geographical a lively and clear style, the geographical and climatic drawbacks, the population and customs, the general danger of collapse; a new one was poverty and backwardness of the

He pointed out that a future ruler reside on the coast, but must show himself to the inhabitants and travel about in the country. Owing to the primitive means of transportation, he the Building Academy opportunity all day on horseback and ride through his domain, having at his saddle bow the famous "bag of sequins" mentioned in all Oriental tales and legends, in order to sway gentlemen who had been formerly so public opinion in his favor in the critical. places visited by the expected shower of gold. The ruler must be sure, the author continued, to bind some of the clans of the region closely to himself, so as to have at his beck and call an armed force for asserting his ful slowness and devotion to red tape of will and overcoming any opponents wishing to rebel, since this was the only way to maintain his power, in view of the utter lack of "troops" of the word. This meant that the ruler of Alpania must lead at first a nomadic, horseback life, and, in addition, provide himself with a wandering camp, the English point of view. I and Tir-had to be at least prepared to defend of a new government's term, and the necessary horses. Plenty of men portant buildings there. Nor could I do have been found in his squadron of many Albanians entered the Turkish since many of his Uhlans, who were very fond of the prince, had declared that they were ready to accompany him as volunteers. Surely, the supervision of the academy; that they would have served him better and been more useful to him than what he did in preparing to take over the overlordship of Albania, without knowledge of the country. I advised my cousin urgently to ships for protection against his subpamphlet? In any event, the course great pleasure, and a wealth of teaching adopted by him subsequently was and stimulus. vice given him by me.

The prince and his wife journeyed to Albania, and things turned out as I had foreseen. According to reports describing the arrival of the sover- a red thread, through his quotations. eign couple, the princess, although In history and ancient languages she was a German, addressed the assembled Albanians from her balcony in French, since they understood no and quote from his store of knowledge German! The "court" remained at -not out of Buchmann*-pieces of Latin Durazzo under the guns of the for- in support of his arguments. Even when eign ships. The prince did not travel he was instructing he was never tireon horseback through the land, nor not even from his balcony on the day two or three weeks' work there he have a well-lined purse, which is an did he scatter gold sequins abouteturned, well satisfied, to England. absolute necessity in Albania. My of his arrival-nor did he push Es-When, after the outbreak of the advice was not heeded by the "Areo- sad out of the way. So the adven- projects, and supported me when the ture ended as one might imagine.

I have gone into some detail in describing my opinion and attitude toity that he could no longer show but seeking, first of all, for pretexts ward the question of the choice of and opportunities for fishing in the the ruler of Albania because, from this fight until victory was won. troubled Albanian waters in such a every possible quarter, false rumors have been circulated for the purpose of imputing to me motives which were utterly foreign to me. In this

> The year 1912 also witnessed the lofty sentiments, but considered him meeting with the czar at Baltischunsuited for the post. The prince Port, whither I repaired on board my knew altogether too little about Bal- yacht at the invitation of Nicholas kan affairs to be able to undertake II. Our two yachts anchored side by side, so that visiting from ship to cess. It was particularly unpleasant ship was easy. The czar, his chilto me that a German prince should dren and his entire entourage vied was apparent from the start that the entente would place all sorts of sian and German escorting squadobstacles in his path. Upon being rons were inspected, turn and turn about, by the czar and myself together, and we took our meals either at the czar's table or mine.

> We spent one morning on land near Baltisch-Port. The 85th "Viborg" Infantry Regiment, whose commander was, had been drawn up in a field and was inspected first in parade formation, then in company and batence of the chancellor. A certain talion exercises, which were carried out in as satisfactory a manner as was the parade with which the evolutions were brought to a close. The regiment, composed of four battalions, made an excellent impression. It was in field equipmentbrown-gray blouses and caps-and the latter, worn jauntily cocked over ambitious, mystically excited wife of one ear by all, gave to the sunbrowned, martial faces of the strong young soldiers a bold air which brought joy to the heart of every soldier who gazed upon them. In the course of the brilliant and uncommonly amiable reception which met with on this occasion I received no hint of the Balkan alliance, oncluded a short time before. It was my last visit in Russia before the outbreak of the war.

CHAPTER VI. My Co-Workers in the Admin financial question, since the reasons I particular pleasure in the Administration for creative co-operation. I trusted him implicitly, and my trust in him was never betrayed. I learned much from my association with this stimulating, shrewd counsellor. The postoffice department reached an unimagined degree of excellence and world. The great invention of the telephone was utilized to the limit, was applied extensively to the public service, and was developed so as to facili-tate it. Likewise in the domain of him bad advice and to intrigue experiences of my own with it. The against him.

All great state building projects de-

Requirements of a Ruler. without much attention to style been intended at first for an Indian the excellently written pamphlet of in honor of the Grand Duchess Charas in the case of every "creation an Austrian general staff officer, lotte, daughter of Frederick William III., and her husband, later Czar Nichoappeared. The officer described, in las I. An investigation instituted at my order showed the material to be spuri-

> With the co-operation and collabora-He pointed out that a future ruler of the land must in no circumstances and plans were made, and finally a big model was provided by Building Councillor Inne-the "modern Schluter," as the Empress Frederick used to call him -which won unanimous approval. Only went on, the lord of the land must sit some objections, stating that the "White Drawing Room" ought to be preserved quired no alterations. When the new structure was completed, however, it also met with the approval of the

> Herr von Stephan also was at logger heads with the Academy of Building. He wanted to alter many postoffices. or build entirely new ones, especially in the aforesaid official body, he used to receive no answers at all, or else re-fusals, when he brought these matters to its attention. The rule of thumb was supreme there. Herr von Stephan was of the opinion that, in its buildings as or an "army" in the European sense well as in other directions, the youthful German Empire must give an impression of power, and that the imperial postoffices must be built accordingly; he be-lieved that they should harmonize with the general style of the towns where they were located, or, at least, conform otherwise than agree with such a view.

Academy's Shackles Broken. At last there came a rupture with the aforementioned academy. His Excel-lency von Stephan lost patience and informed me that he had freed his office. and the buildings erected by it, from he had even formed a committee from among his own architects and officials for supervising purposes; and that all more important plans for buildings to a final inspection. I did so willingly. Stephan was an enthusiastic hunts man, so that I had additional opportunities, while on the court hunts, to the land on a sound basis and helpe it toward prosperity. Intercourse with

The degree to which Miquel was versed in all possible matters was astounding. In conversation he was brisk humorous and keen in elucidating and arguing on a subject, in addition to which a strong historical bent ran, like was marvelously well equipped, so that in his reports, he was able often to hark back to the times of the Romans tics, but used to hold his hearers spellbound to the very end.

It was his Excellency Miquel likewise who incited me to favor the great canal Prussian Conservatives opposed the Central [Rhine-Weser-Elbe] Canal, and caused the failure of the plan to build it. He lent strength to the king and knew, as I did, what blessings the canals

The Old

Proverb Fails!

An Orange Pekoe by any other name than Red Rose is not as fragrant, not as rich and flavory, for RED ROSE ORANGE PE-KOE TEA comes from the finest cultivated mountain gardens in the Orient.

The distinction between mountain grown and low grown teas, between teas from fine modern estates and backward, poorly-cultivated gardens, is the exquisite taste that so distinguishes RED ROSE ORANGE PE-KOE TEA.

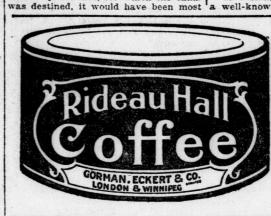

All the best grocers sell it in the sealed package only: 43c per 14 lb.; 85c per lb.

work of France had brought to those lands, and what a relief they were to the ever more hard-pressed railways. In the World War we might have had capacity for work and joyousness; endowed, moreover, with refreshing thus relieving the railways, for the lat-humor, quick to perceive new possibilities, never at a loss for expedients, well greater scale—moreover, this would versed in political and technical matters, have lessened the shortage of coal. In he seemed to have been born especially time of peace also, for which the canal to his spirited handling of this theme imperial way; he was fully adequate to the requirements and demands of the new era, rightly appreciating when

*A German philologist who compiled well-known book of quotations.

A high grade blend — nothing added - nothing taken away.

Sold only in Airtight tins.

GORMAN, ECKERT & CO. London and Winnipeg

OFFATS Electric

The Hydro Shop

ASPIRIN

UNLESS you see the name "Bayer" on tablets, you are not getting Aspirin at all

Accept only an "unbroken package" of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin," which contains directions and dose worked out by physicians during 22 years and proved safe by millions for

Colds Toothache Earache

Headache Rheumatism Neuralgia Neuritis Lumbago Pain, Pain

Handy "Bayer" boxes of 12 tablets-Also bottles of 24 and 100-Druggists. Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Mono-aceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

This Gentleman In Woodstock Likes a rease

M. Ross, 591 Hatch Street, Woodstock, used a Pease Pipeless Furnace to heat his home. The results were most satisfactory. Here is his letter:

stalled in my house has given me entire satisfaction in the coldest weather, is easy on fuel, and is easily regulated and attended to

May we tell you more about this method of heating? Illustrated literature will go to you for the asking, and if we had a sketch of your home could give you definite information regarding prices. Write us today,

GEO. WINTERBOTTOM & SON. 519 Richmond Street. WM. STEVELY & SON

197 King Street.

London Representatives.

NEW AND USED TORONTO