London Has Raised $37,852 of $75,000 Quota For Sanatorium.

WORKERS BANQUET

Encouraging Reports Received From Other Centers of Province.

London has raised exactly $37,852 of ts quota of $75,000 for the Beck memorial endowment fund for Queen Alexandra sanatorium. Reports made at the workers' banquet at Smallman & Ingram's last night indicated that the 27 teams of canvassers had gathered in $14,952, which, with an additional $6,900 reported by the special gifts' committee, brought the total up to a little more than half the objective set for the city. Gerald F. Pearson, secretary-treasurer of the campaign, in reporting upon behalf of the special gifts' committee, drew particular attention to the fol-lowing: Staff employees and patients of Byron sanatorium, (partial list), $476.50; Miss A. Smallman and Miss E. Smallman, Colborne street, ((voluntar; subscription), $500; Imperial Oil Com pany staff (voluntary subscription) $500; Great War Veterans' association $200; Tubercular Veterans' association

F. W. St. Lawrence, captain of team No. 10, Division No. 2, reported $1,005 and topped the list, closely followed by Frank Forristal's team, with $966, J. S. Lovell's team with $945, V. Cronyn's team, with $937, E. Shuttleworth's team with $852, and Jack Watt's team with $805. It might be stated that Mr. Watt is the sole member of his team, and that Mr. Shuttleworth reported an anonymous donation of $500 in his list.

Division Reports. A. E. Silverwood, commander Division No. 3, reported a total of $3,674, followed by the other four divisions as follows: T. W. McFarland, No. 2, $3,055; E. V. Buchanan, No. 1, $2,977; W. N. Manning, No. 5, $2,764; J. J. McHale, No. 4, $2,282. The full list of team totals by
