

BREWERS ARE NOT BUYING

AND THE WHEAT MARKET IS PLEASANT AND CHEERFUL.

This is one reason for dull barley market. Wheat is firmer and the outlook is more hopeful—stock exchange is quiet.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, Dec. 3. Barley seems duller to-day than ever and American advice is lower. On the other side brewers are buying. Westerns at 67 to 77c and Iowa at 69 to 67c; Canada barley, it is said, is too high, the highest offer being 77 to 78 for 3 extra. Advice says that Canadian barley is too high and that Westerns are plentiful and low. Dealers here are not buying. The drop of 16 to 18 cents during the past month seems to have floored them and they are doing nothing. To-day No. 3 was offering at 68 on the spot. There is an enquiry for No. 1, but there seems to be little of it in the market; the farmer's hands; the stuff being delivered is low grades. Dealers want the farmers to stop deliveries to allow the market to steady.

What has been out of sympathy with the Chicago market, is firmer. A bid of $1.12 was made on Chicago to-day for No. 1 Manitoba head, but there is none of it in the market; if it were it would hardly bring that much. Street prices are firmer as a result of the refusal of farmers to sell at $1 and therefore stopping deliveries. There is a feeling that these bottom has been reached and that the outlook is brighter.

Flour is as dull. It is a most discouraging season for dealers. There is no demand; even the local business is not active. Millers are not ordering and will not look as before, they will be using up their stocks. It is expected that when the street market improves there will be an enquiry.

When the extension was given Joseph A. Perry, the copy-right holder, by his creditors that may be shown a nominal surplus of $3000. His nominal assets—stock, shop and fixtures—now amount to $5000 and his liabilities between $4500 and $5000.

Business on the local stock exchange was slightly brighter to-day, the transactions only totaling 225 shares. The market was quiet yesterday, Hamilton alone having an advance of 1.
