The first contest, Osgoode v. Varsity, was the popular game, especially the first half. From the puck-off it was evident spectators were to see a scorers' match, as the total, 16 to 11, would indicate.

Up to the end of the sixth it was any-body's match, but the weight and combina-tion of Osgoode commenced to tell, and when half-time was called the tally, 6-3, was a good indication of the abilities of the

A friendly game of hockey was played at the Granite Rink yesterday between the Granites and Peterboros, 12 rinks aside, resulting in favor of Peterboro by 13 shots as Clan Alpine 3. Best time 2.34.

An exciting contest is expected.

Brampton and Prospect had arranged to play their Tankard draw here to-day, but as the Excelsiors were unable to visit the city the match has been postponed until Monday on Granite ice.

Frogs Taught By a Wealthy Invalid t Play Many Amusing Tricks. Horace Horton has reached the height of success in the way of bringing frogs wealthy invalid, and derives great pleasure from teaching his pets. The correspondent of The Philadelphia Record visited him the other day, and witnessed his unique frog circus. Gazing down into the artificial lake he saw ocean shells scattered over the bottom and wondered what they were for. Mr. Horton gave a shrill whistle, and simultaneously from every shell hopped out a big frog and kicked itself to the surface of the water. All jumped to the smooth bank under his persuasive control.

DRIVATE MONEY AT 5 PER CENT.
We beg to remind borrowers that unless we are favored with instructions to negotiate loans at the above rate we never mention it. Money has been going into stocks until a risky height has been reached, and when not invested in this way it has been accumulating in the banks, until it now fails to draw scarcely any interest. Borrowers who can offer central productive business property in Toronto as security can depend upon getting large loans promptly at the above rate through us.
