Rheuma and need it now.

Many people, the most skeptical of skeptics right in this town and in the country hereabouts, bless the day when J. W. McLaren and other good druggists offered Rheuma to the afflicted at a small price and guaran-and the secret one news be hurled day, and from this place, wondering world.

Wh light this transformation?
T he nation know
L uence of the Zavitzses V here long ago.

Son uthers may have helped a bit,
V give them all their due;
But e, we took the grandest old Aad made a grander new.

The best from all of Europe came To Pennsylvania;
And there they sorted out the best
To come to Canada.

They brought the best from Holland's dunes,
From Alsace and Lorraine,
The best from Germany, and France,
The best of Dutch and Dane.

The best that dwelt by Rhine and Rhone,
'Twixt Zuider Zee and Po,
They brought it here and planted it
From Bertie to the Eau.

One Zavitz came to Bertie To Wainfleet one did go, One brother braved the Western wilds
And settled near Roundeau.

They came here to the wilderness;
They knew no fear or foe,
They spread their light and culture
From Bertie to the Eau.

They heaved homes in the wilderness Wherever they did go,
The smoke curled o'er their humble huts
From Bertie to the Eau.

They swung their babes in birchen boughs
They swung them to and fro;
In fancy I can see them swing
From Bertie to the Eau.

They tilled the ground among the stumps
With wide-horned oxen teams;
And with their oxen drove to church And dreamed their heavenly dreams.

They carried wheat for twenty miles Or more upon their backs;
And carried home the precious flour Through winding Indian tracks.

But thus they grew a thrifty race, Extracting bliss from woe
And left a famed posterity
From Bertie to the Eau.

If anybody doubts my word
Just let them view this host,
And they must needs agree with me That 'tis no idle boast.

The poet, could he see this sight,
Would change his warlike lay;
'Twere worth ten years of material strife

One glance at this array.

We're not a horde of soldier men Equipped for murderous deed;
But peace men, brave and sober men,
The Lord's own chosen seed.

This be our watchword O, my friends As year by year goes by; Inscribed with "Love for God and men".
We'll lift our banner high.

—Edgar M. Zavitz.

PETROLIA

Mrs. C. O. Fairbanks is in Toronto arranging to occupy her residence there. A couple of truckloads of furniture were sent to Toronto on Tuesday.

Petrolia's Grand Old Man, Mr. W.
G. Fraser, quietly observed his 85th birthday Wednesday. Mr. Fraser, we are glad to say, is enjoying his usual good health and looks forward another fifteen years when he will reach the century mark.

Contractors Bath & Anderson are proceeding with the erection of the new high school as rapidly as possible but not quickly enough to suit them.
Just now they are being held up by the company which supplies the building alone. A while ago they were held up on the lumber supply. At that time they thought the building might be ready for occupancy by January, but now they won't even hazard a guess when it will be ready.

Settling forth how she was kidnabped from her father's house and driven 200 miles to Orillia, Can., and there threatened that if she did not consent to marriage she would be kept a prisoner, Mrs. Great C. Videan filed suit for annulment against her husband, June 5th, 1923, at Petrolia, forced her to marry him June 6th that she came back to her father's house June 15. Since July 1, Mrs. Videan declared, she has been in Detroit, intended to become an American citizen. She also asked that the court determine the status of her marriage with Videan and to grant either a divorce or an annulment and that her maiden name of Gordon be restored.

McMAHEN—HOLMES
A quiet wedding was solemnized by Rev. Chas. E. Cragg, B.D., at the Devine street United church, Sarnia, on Saturday, when Harvey Augustus McMahon of Moore township was united in marriage to Ethel Evelyn Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
David Holmes, of Enniskillen township. After a motor trip Mr. and Mrs.
McMahon will take up their residence on Emma street, Sarnia.

Last year's attendance at the Cana-

Union, South America, Great Britain, Continental Europe, New Zealand, Australia and other distant points.

FORMER BROOKE RESIDENT DIES IN IOWA

Mrs. Mary Eyres Succumbs to Heart Trouble and Other Infirmities (Le Mars, Iowa) Sentinel)

Mrs. Mary Eyres, a resident of Plymouth county for more than forty years, died at her home, 909 First avenue, SE., Tuesday morning, after a brief illness. Death was due to heart trouble and infirmities of age, from which she had suffered for some time.
She was 88 years of age.

Mary Walsh was born in Durham county, Ontario, Canada, November 15th, 1837, and was the oldest of nine children and the last one of her brothers and sisters to hear the final summons. She grew up and was educated in her native place and January 31, 1856, was united in marriage to Isaac Eyres. They made their home in Durham county until 1873, when they moved to Lambton county, where they farmed for several years.

Early Settler in Union Mr. and Mrs. Eyres came to Plymouth county in March, 1881, and bought land in Union township where they farmed successfully for many years. Mr. Eyres was accidentally killed in a fall from a windmill tower December 7, 1894. His wife continued to reside on the farm with her children until 1901, when she took up her residence in Le Mars.

For the past two years she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Wm.
Begg, where she passed away Tuesday, August 11, at the ripe age of 87 years and 9 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Eyres were the parents of eleven children, seven sons and four daughters, all living except one, Mrs. Margaret Pearson, who died in January, 1905.

The children all reside in Le Mars and are William, Zack, Thomas, Wesley, Richard, Charles and Ernest.
Mrs. Wm. Begg, Mrs. Albert Stokes, and Miss Ethel Eyres. There are thirty-three grandchildren. Three grandchildren preceded her in death.

She was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church, being affiliated with the church in Union and later with the First Presbyterian church in Le Mars.

Mrs. Eyres was a devoted wife and mother and spent a long and useful life doing good, being a loyal neighbor and staunch friend. She was one of the band of noble women who so materially assisted their husbands in settling up a new country and were a lasting influence for good in a growing community. Mrs. Eyres enjoyed the esteem of all those who knew her and her friendships were firm and life long.

The funeral was held Thursday, August 13th, at two p.m., at the First Presbyterian church, Rev. J. A.
Hills, the pastor, and Rev. W. E.
Smith, of the Union township church, having charge of the services. The interment was made in the Union township cemetery where her husband and other members of the family are buried.
