Concert.—Prof. N. H. Phinney o's ed his singing class at Alma Hall, Granville, on Thursday sevening, 25th inst., by a grand concert. The flat was crowded, and at the close he was requested to reopen his class, which be has consented to do next Friday evening, Feb. 2nd. The class numbered about 70 pupils and was a very successful term.

Prof. Phinney and class at Paradise West intend giving a concert at Law rencetown some time next month, at which he will give the grand oratorio "Daniel or the Captivity and Restoration," and a grand cantata in three parts, and from what we know of Prof. P. and the Paradise West class, it will be worthy of the patronage of the public. Prof. Phinney is one of our most popular and successful teachers of vocal and instrumental music. His system has a marked improvement in the church choirs in the localities in which he teaches.
