

and more advanced character than anything that has hitherto been offered to the women of Canada. Therefore, it is hoped that the ladies, who may desire to pursue studies of a class higher than that supplied by the Public and High Schools, will show their appreciation of the effort now being made for their benefit, and extend to the London Ladies' College the support and encouragement needed by such a college in the commencement of its career.

---

UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENTS

1. English Language.
2. French Language.
3. German Language.
4. Italian Language.
5. Latin Language.
6. Greek Language.
7. History and Geography.
8. Mathematics and Astronomy.
9. Chemistry and Physics.
10. Mineralogy and Geology.
11. Botany and Zoölogy.
12. Mental and Moral Philosophy.
13. Logic and Civil Polity.

---

Special attention is called to the Prospectus which contains full information respecting the Preparatory School, the Matriculation and higher Annual Examinations, the Department of Fine Arts (Drawing and Painting), the Department of Music (Vocal and Instrumental), the Department of Domestic Economy, the Fees, Vacations, etc., etc.