

Q. In other cases, then, may you decide this question for yourselves? A. No; we should apply to our clergymen.

Q. How do Christians in general keep the week days in Lent?—A. Throughout the western church Christians are universally allowed during Lent to eat meat on two days in the week besides the Sundays; but even on those days full meat only is allowed.

Q. Is the holy eucharist a sacrifice?—A. Yes, it is a sacrifice commemorative of the one sacrifice upon the cross, or, as the fathers call it, the unbloody sacrifice of the body and blood of Christ.

Q. Is it not also a propitiatory sacrifice?—A. It is; it renders God propitious to us when rightly used, and it is a mode in which the great sacrifice upon the cross is applied to ourselves and to others.

SCOTLAND.

The Free Church men are making most free with the Presbyteries and authorities who attempt to induct new ministers into the old churches. In Cromartyshire, at a place called Resolis, last week, a case infinitely more aggravated than that at Ross Kean, described in our last, occurred. The Presbytery and their friends were obliged to fire on the Free Church party, and even then could not effect an entrance into the church, but were debarred and compelled to make the induction in a common dwelling house.

We understand that the Free Church congregation of Aberfeldy have elected the Marquis of Breadalbane to be their representative elder at the ensuing meeting of the General Assembly which is to be held at Glasgow, and that his lordship, in the frankest and kindest spirit, has consented to undertake the duty. Mr. Fox Maule has been chosen to a similar office by the Free Church at Dunkeld.—Calcutta Mercury.

Again the Ross-shire Advertiser tells us the Rev. Mr. Mackenzie having been inducted by the Presbytery at Dinwall, proceeded to preach at Logie on Sunday last; but found a vast collection of people congregated at the church in the utmost state of excitement. The entrance was barricaded, and a lawless, desperate mob hovered round it, resolved to prevent any person whatever from going into the church. Lady Ross, Balmagown, drove up to the church, and was assailed with the most virulent Billingsgate. Not only so, but a woman actually struck at her ladyship with a stick, and she received a blow on the arm. Lady Ross then withdrew, amidst a shower of stones and blackguard abuse. Shortly after this Mr. Ross, of Cromarty, accompanied by his son, Mr. George Ross arrived at the church. Access was denied them, and the most scandalous and impious language uttered. The church bell was tolling, and to the noise and clamour of the crowd were at that pitch as to threaten the most awful consequences. Mr. Ross retired to Tain for Sheriff Cameron, who accompanied him to Logie. The Rev. Mr. Mackenzie had by this time gone away; but the sheriff used the utmost exertion to restore quiet. We understand that some of the people said, if a site were given them for a church they would desist from further annoyance. In place of spending the holy Sabbath in quietness and peace in these two parishes, there was nothing but turmoil and confusion. The duty which these people owe to their neighbor was no less violated than what was due to their Lord and Saviour.

We have more news of the Ross-shire riots. One of the most active of the assailants in the late affair at Resolis, of the name Margaret Cameron, having been captured, was sent to Cromarty prison, under the charge of Mr. Dingwall, sheriff's officer, & lodged in goal. On Friday afternoon a large collection of people from Resolis, armed with sticks, went to Cromarty, entered the yard that surrounds the goal, and commenced throwing immense stones at the outer door of the prison. The panels of the door having been soon demolished by such appliances, an entrance was effected, and the passage door, as well as the door of the apartment in which Cameron was confined, shared the same fate. The prisoner was then taken out of the prison, and triumphantly carried away by the mob, who left Cromarty without doing further mischief. On Thursday evening, as the officer returned from Cromarty, after securing the woman Cameron in prison, he was attacked at Jannimavillo by a mob, who broke his gig to atoms, and cut the harness, he himself making a narrow escape from their fury. Pieces of the broken gig were carried by the rabble that invaded Cromarty, on the succeeding day, as trophies of their prowess. Eighteen horsemen, the tenantry of the Laird of Tulloch, and fifty of Sir J. Mackenzie's tenants, were sworn in special constables at Invergordon on Thursday, and on the following day a party of the 87th Regiment arrived from Fort George. There was (says the Inverness Herald) a large assemblage of spectators, and many of them swelling with curses, "not loud but deep," while the most riotous proceedings have decamped, or taken off to their hiding places.

DR. SPOHN'S SICK-HEADACHE REMEDY.

Read the following from Judge Patterson, for thirty years the first Judge of the County in which he lives. Middletown, N. J., March 12, 1840. Messrs. Comstock & Co.

Gentlemen—You are at liberty to make such use of the following certificate as you deem will best observe the purpose for which it is intended.

[Certificate of Judge Patterson] I HEREBY CERTIFY that my daughter has been afflicted with sick headache for about 20 years—the attacks recurring once in about two weeks, frequently lasting 24 hours, during which time the paroxysms have been so severe, as apparently soon to deprive her of life. And after having tried almost all other remedies in vain, I have been induced as a last resort to try Spohn's Headache Remedy as sold by you; and to the great disappointment and joy of herself and all her friends, found very material relief from the first dose of the medicine. She has followed up the directions with the article, and in every case when an attack was threatened has found immediate relief, until she is now permanently cured. The attacks are now very seldom, & disappear almost immediately after taking the quantity directed. A hope that others may be benefited by the use of this truly invaluable medicine, has induced me to send you the above, and remain your obedient servant. JERU R. PATTERSON, Judge of the Court of C P. This Medicine can be had at Bickle's Medical Hall; also at the Drug-gist shops of C. H. Webster and J. Winer Hamilton.

KOLMSTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.

THIS remedy for worms is one of the most extraordinary ever used. It effectually eradicates worms of all sorts, from children and adults. THOUSANDS perish by worms without the real cause being known. Some other reason is assigned for this sickness until too late to cure the real cause. What an immense responsibility then rests upon the parent who does not know, and the doctor who does not understand the complaint which is destroying those precious powers of life—children.

What should be done? The answer is plain. Give this vermifuge, which will be sure to do good, if they have no worms; and if they have, it will destroy and eradicate them with a certainty and precision truly astonishing. It cannot harm the smallest infant or the strongest adult. There is no mercury or mineral in it. Mercury is the basis of most worm remedies; and the remedy is sometimes worse than the disease. So never use lozenges, but rely on this. Every person will be convinced on one trial, that it is the most perfect cure ever invented.

The immense sale that this vermifuge has, is a sure test of its value and the estimation in which it is held by families. It would be quite too expensive to publish the volumes of certificates that have been given for this article, and the users of it are requested to spread the name to all persons whom they think may be benefited by it.

Speak of it in all families, and you will do your duty to your fellow creatures, and feel assured of the approbation of all good men, and will receive your reward in heaven.

We call on all good citizens to make known the effects of this wonderful remedy.

Remember and ask for Kolmstock's Vermifuge.

This Medicine can be had at Bickle's Medical Hall; also at the Drug-gist shops of C. H. Webster and J. Winer, Hamilton.
