

Littell's Living Age.

IN 1888 THE LIVING AGE enters upon its forty-fifth year, having met with constant commendation and success.

A WEEKLY MAGAZINE, it gives fifty-two numbers of sixty-pages each, or more than double-column octavo, pages of reading matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a completeness nowhere else attempted.

Three and a Quarter Thousand

The best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Serial and Short Stories, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature, and from the pens of the FOREMOST LIVING WRITERS.

The ablest and most cultivated intellects, in every department of Literature, Science, Politics, and Art, find expression in the Periodical Literature of Europe, and especially of Great Britain.

The Living Age, forming four large volumes a year, furnishes, from the great and generally inaccessible mass of this literature, the only compilation that, while within the reach of all, is satisfactory in the COMPLETENESS with which it embraces whatever is of immediate interest, or of solid, permanent value.

It is therefore indispensable to every one who wishes to keep pace with the events or intellectual progress of the time, or to cultivate in himself or his family, general intelligence and literary taste

OPINIONS.

"We have thought that it was impossible to improve upon this grand publication, yet it does seem to grow better each year. We regard it as the most marvellous publication of the time."—Christian at Work, New York.

"By reading it one can keep abreast of the current thought upon all literary and public matters."—New York Observer.

"Such a publication exhausts our superlatives. There is nothing noteworthy in science, art, literature, biography, philosophy, or religion, that cannot be found in it. It contains nearly all the good literature of the time."—The Churchman, New York.

"In reading its closely printed pages one is brought in contact with the men who are making opinion the world over. Always new, always attractive always exhibiting editorial wisdom, it is as essential as ever to every one desirous of keeping up with the current of English literature."—Episcopal Recorder, Phila.

"It is edited with great skill and care, and its weekly appearance gives it certain advantages over its monthly rivals."—Albany Argus.

"It may be truthfully and cordially said that it never offers a dry or valueless page."—New York Tribune.

"At its publication price it is the cheapest reading one can procure."—Boston Globe.

"It saves much labor for busy people who have no time to go over the various reviews and magazines, but who still wish to keep themselves well informed upon the questions of the day."—The Advance, Chicago.

"It furnishes a complete compilation of an indispensable literature."—Chicago Evening Journal.

"It enables its readers to keep fully abreast of the best thought and literature of civilization."—Christian Advocate, Pittsburg.

"It is unequalled."—North Carolina Presbyterian, Wilmington.

"It is absolutely without a rival."—Montreal Gaz. Published weekly at $3 00 a year, free of postage.

To New Subscribers for the year 1888, remitting before Jan. 1st, the numbers of 1887 issued after the receipt of their subscriptions, will be sent gratis.

Club-Prices for the best Home & Foreign Literature ("Possessed of THE LIVING AGE and one or other of our vivacious American monthlies, a subscriber will find himself in command of the whole situation."—Phila. Eccl. Bulletin.)

For $10.50, THE LIVING AGE and any one of the American $4 Monthlies (or Harper's Weekly or Bazar) will be sent for a year, post paid; or, for $9.50, THE LIVING AGE and the St. Nicholas or Scribner's Mag.
