

INDEX.

The Praise of Temperance                      The Temperance Star                      The Temperance Tree                      The Temperance Triumph                      EDITORIAL.                      Alcohol's Doings                      An Appeal to the Legis of Canada                      Anniversaries, Festivals, &amp;c.                      Another Division of the Sons                      Ayr, C.W.                      Bachelor's Ball                      Barnum on the Maine Law                      Be at Peace among Yourselves                      Brief Rejoinders to the True Witness                      British Provinces                      Cadets of Temperance                      Cameron's, Mr., Bill                      Canada—Past, Present, and Future                      Canadian Temperance Intelligence 45,                      Canadian Temperance Intelligence                      Christian Missions to the Heathen                      Court of Queen's Bench, Sverbrooke                      Cruikshank, Mr., and the Rats                      Close of the 18th Volume                      Chocolate Useful Knowledge                      Daughters of Temperance                      Demonstrations                      Dickens, Mr. Charles                      Don't you Believe it!                      Driscoll, Mr., on Tavern Licenses                      chapter 100                      Duclos, Mr                      Ecclesiastical Action                      Economy of the Maine Law                      Extraordinary Attack on Teetotalism                      Fatal Effects of Strong Drink                      First Principles in Common                      Forgive, if not Forget                      Fourth Section                      Fredericksburgh                      Funeral Sermon                      Good News from a Distance                      Good News from Quebec                      Gough, J B                      Grand Division of C E 28, 152, 166,                      Grand Division of C W 103, 165, 197,                      Annual Meeting of                      Grand Divisions                      Good Effects of the Anti Liquor Law                      Great Britain and Ireland                      Health Insurance                      Hercules—Raymond Lully, &amp;c                      Honor to whom Honor is due                      Howard Division—Pic Nic Melbourne                      Soiree                      Important Meeting in Galt                      Insidious Opposition to the Maine Law                      Ireland and Canada                      Jewett, Dr                      Extract of a Letter from                      Visit of                      Kellogg, F W                      Kingston Meeting                      Knights of Temperance                      Legislative Coercion                      Legislative Protection                      Letter from David Christie, Esq, MPP                      Licenses                      List of Agents                      Local Arguments for the Maine Law                      Maine Law Meeting in Montreal                      Maine Law Sprinklings                      Malum per Se!                      Massachusetts Anti-Liquor Law                      Meetings for the Maine Law                      Melbourne, C E, and its Neighborhood                      Revival of the Cause in                      Missisquoi County	8                      288                      224                      158                      68                      257                      85                      47                      117                      61                      194                      241                      351                      13                      60                      310                      200                      132                      132                      164                      145                      83                      284                      380                      384                      117                      230                      280                      227                      181                      191                      60                      225                      298                      242                      39                      319                      115                      229                      149                      285                      326                      149                      181                      368                      228                      381                      381                      309                      362                      133                      276                      116                      87                      129                      251                      147                      341                      28                      277                      290                      367                      112                      209                      232                      43                      353, 369                      290                      296                      254                      319                      191                      245                      148                      148	Montreal Temperance Society, Sixteenth                      Annual Report of                      Moral Suasion 249                      New Brunswick                      New Division                      New Division in Quebec                      New Temperance Hotel                      New York Organ                      Nine Cheers more for Massachusetts                      No License 165                      No Music 103                      Notices to Correspondents, &amp;c 31, 47, 60,                      88, 103, 119, 152, 166, 181, 211, 232,                      217, 250, 295, 310, 318, 327, 341                      350, 367, 384                      Notices Respecting Contemporaries, &amp;c 13,                      29, 69, 100, 132, 165, 199, 229, 241,                      321, 364                      Notice to Subscribers                      Notice of Supplement                      Obituary                      Ormiston, Rev W                      Our Prospects for 1853                      Petitions for the Maine Law                      Presentment of the Grand Jury of the                      Court of Queen's Bench                      Prohibitory Liquor Law                      Prospectus XIX Vol C T A 297, 314, 343,                      Progress of Education in U C                      Railroad Demonstrations                      Railroads, Rum and Rot                      Railroads and Rum again                      Read the Prospectus for 1853                      Rechab, Sons of                      Rechabite Jubilee                      Rechabites, Canada East Grand Tent of 61                      Rechabites, Independent Order of                      Remonstrance against the Maine Law                      Rum's History—Man's Fall                      Samaritan Tent, I O of R                      Shefford County                      Social Condition of the United Kingdom                      Sons of Temperance                      Special Notice                      Starting New Papers                      Statistics of Crime in Montreal                      Streams from Temperance Springs 10, 25,                      41, 81, 96, 114, 130, 146, 161, 179,                      196, 211, 227, 244, 260, 274, 291, 308,                      319, 338, 344, 365, 382                      Success in Rhode Island                      Supply and Demand                      Taking it Kindly                      Telegraphs—City Papers—Maine Law                      Temperance                      Temperance Anniversaries                      Temperance Celebration                      Temperance Demonstration                      Temperance Envelopes                      Temperance Fruit                      Temperance Meetings                      Temperance Visitor in Montreal                      Ten Thousand a Year                      The Anglo-American Magazine                      The British Parliament                      The Brockville Recorder                      The Canadian Son of Temperance                      The Cause in Bytown                      The City Fathers of Hamilton                      The Court of Queen's Bench, Montreal                      The Daughters in London, C.W.                      The Friends in Whitby                      The Grand Jury and the Maine Law                      The Great Calamity                      The Great Exhibition Panorama                      The Groceries—The Magistracy—                      The Montreal Gazette                      The Hon. M. Cameron                      The Late Daniel Webster	135                      94                      84,310,327                      311                      152                      42                      117                      180                      9                      272                      362                      276                      150                      177                      117                      12                      340                      318                      80                      306                      290                      58                      103                      163                      144                      22, 98                      185                      162                      131, 131                      384                      133                      160                      283                      176                      28                      28, 65                      275                      276                      ORIGINAL CONTRIBUTIONS, COR-                      RESPONDENCE, &amp;c.                      Alcohol's Devastations                      Alcohol's Doings                      Alcohol's Progress                      An Appeal                      Correspondence 31, 69, 88, 102, 118,                      119, 166, 182, 199, 212, 231, 247,                      278, 293, 341                      Daughters of Temperance                      Extracts from Correspondence                      Gough Division, Quebec                      Grand Division of C.E.                      Hornby Soiree, The Maine Law, &amp;c.                      Legal Suasion vs. Moral Suasion                      Missisquoi County                      New Year's Day                      Quebec Correspondence 277, 293, 310,                      340, 367                      St. Andrews Division Celebration                      Sons of Temperance                      Sunday Sales                      Synopsis of Letters Received                      Temperance Doings in Vaudreuil                      Temperance Jottings 46, 59, 84, 113,                      115, 160, 178, 192, 225, 246, 261,                      337, 365                      The Cause in Quebec                      The Maine Law in Esquimes                      Maine Law—Shefford and Missisquoi                      The Question Answered                      What brought Burns so prematurely to                      his grave?                      Births, Marriages and Deaths, Mar-                      kets, Advertisements, &amp;c, on two last                      pages of each number.
--	---	---	---