

The church regrets to receive the resignation of Bro. B. J. Lawson from the finance committee after six years of splendid service as secretary.

G. B. Cutten, a licentiate of this church, now pursuing a post-graduate course at Yale, has accepted a call, so says the New York Examiner, to the Baptist church of Montowese, Conn.

Amherst has never been so free from intemperance as during the past few weeks. The Law and Order League has thus far been an unqualified success.

Rev. T. Trotter, the president elect of Acadia College, in a letter to the pastor, speaks hopefully of the work which he is soon to undertake. The Baptists of the Maritime Provinces are to be congratulated on the acquisition of such a wise and brilliant educational leader.

Canon Wilberforce says a Christian's duty is to admit, submit, commit, and transmit.

It seemed like the olden days to hear the voice of Dr. Steele as he preached for us two Sunday evenings.

The first Sunday in April will be observed as Missionary day in the church and Sunday School. Let us make it a day of special prayer for the missionary enterprise.

Miss Alice Logan writes from the Gordon training school, Boston, that she is enjoying the work there and is looking forward to a broader sphere in the near future.

This church takes a special interest in its non-resident members. At the Christmas season a bright, cheerful letter was sent to every absent member whose address could be obtained. Many kind and appreciative replies were received, extracts from which were read at the annual roll call. If any non-resident member fails to receive the REFLECTOR, will some home friend kindly hand the address to one of the editors?
