

IN MEMORIAM.
PRESIDENT GARFIELD.

BRITISH—Dominion—American Standards floating at half mast. Windows in which are displayed portraits of the late President, draped with mourning. Eyes in which the pearly tear drop glistens. Quivering lips which tell of deep inward emotion. Earnest prayers for the sorrowing family and nation. Hearty Amens as responses to those prayers. All these speak more loudly than could the most eloquent tongue, declaring that the line 45" is after all but an imaginary line, and that in this deep sorrow of Columbia's sons and daughters, Canadians have lost sight of all national, political or commercial relations, and acknowledge that the relationship of Brethren unites us. May He who trod the waves of the Galilean sea on his message of cheer and comfort and rest, be now seen by the sorrowing mother, the heart-broken widow, the fatherless children, and the stricken nation, and may His voice be heard saying "It is I be not afraid."

"I heard a voice from Heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them" Rev. xiv. 13.

THE STRAIGHT PATH.

THE Bible is so strict and old-fashioned," said a young man to a gray-haired friend who was advising him to study God's word if he would learn how to live. "There are plenty of books written now-a-days that are moral enough in their teaching, and which don't bind one down as the Bible does."

The old merchant turned to his desk and took out a couple of rulers, one of which was slightly bent. With each of these he ruled a line, and silently handed the ruled paper to his companion.

"Well," said the lad, "what do you mean?"

"One line is not straight and true, is it? When you mark out your path in life, don't use a crooked ruler."

REMEMBER.

IF when engaged in the master's work, you find yourself assailed by the world, remember that "No one throws stones at trees which bear no fruit."

WILL IT PAY?

WEIGH well the practice of sin, and ponder this question. Remember that

"The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Rom. vi. 23.

DARE YOU RISK YOUR SOUL?

IT DON'T PAY.

IT don't pay to hang one citizen, because another citizen sells him liquor.

It don't pay to have one citizen in the lunatic asylum, because another citizen sold him liquor.

It don't pay to have one citizen in the jail, because another citizen sells him liquor.

It don't pay to have fifty workingmen ragged, to have one saloon keeper dressed in broadcloth and flush of money.
