ist, and Mr. R. C. Bourne helped things along with his flute. Among the varied elements represented in the assemblage there was no lack of talent, but as many of the men had come very early, some having been waiting at the door since 5.30 o'clock, the programme was a short one, and the National Anthem, followed by cheers for the hosts, brought the proceedings to a close at 10 o'clock.—Toronto Star.

NOTES

Over $80 worth of tickets were sold, more than half being disposed of by the stall-holders and their families, and credited to their own tables.

A comparison of the amounts made by tea and ice cream in 1905 and 1906 will show how hard Mrs. Reid must have worked to make such a large total:

Tea and ice cream...... 1905 1906 1907 $42.61 $48.50 $110.85

The following ladies are thanked for their generous contributions to the tea room: Mes-

The fancy work table is already arranged for next year's sale of work, and is under the management of Miss Bradda Ogden. Mrs. Crease and Miss Harman. It is proposed to provide materials at the Parish Guild meetings so that those who wished could at once begin to make articles suitable for the fancy work table.

The cost of the poppies and wreathing for the sale of work was $15.00, out of which $7.50 has been recovered by sales of poppies and wreathing.

The next meeting of the Parish Guild will be on Jan. 23rd, when the annual fees will be paid, officers elected, and some pretty sewing started by those who care to come at three.
