

JEWISH SCENE.

Here is a picture which excites sad thoughts. It represents the Jews in Jerusalem, lamenting over their nation, and wailing for the coming of a Messiah, whose coming, their eyes are blinded not to perceive, has already taken place. When Dr. Aiton was in Jerusalem he saw the Jews there, assembled for humiliation and prayer, kissing parts of the old wall which they believe to be part of the Temple, with great fervency and many tears, and praying the while
