

NEWS AND NOTES.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. WINSLOW'S Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25c a bottle.

Little man—I understand, sir, that you have called me an unmitigated liar? Big man—No, I didn't use the word unmitigated. Little man—Then I accept your apology.

CHUMBS OF COMFORT.—Ear ache, toothache, headache, neuralgia, and deafness can be instantly relieved and finally cured by Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. Get a bottle and read directions.

Mr. Gladstone was lately on a visit to a noble owner of "surging woods," who was asked on the termination of his stay how he had enjoyed the visit of the Premier. "Very much," was the reply, "but the next time he comes I shall ask him to bring his own trees with him."

The editor of an agricultural paper says, there is absolutely no cure for hog cholera, but that Sheridan's Condition Powders given occasionally will certainly prevent it. Be sure to get Sheridan's. The other kinds in large packs are trash.

Boy—'Ain't it time to eat the good things?' Mother—'Certainly not, you must wait until your friends come.' Boy—'I guess they won't come,' cause I didn't invite them. I thought I'd rather have it entirely exclusive.'

A CURE FOR DISTEMPER.

C. C. Richards & Co.,

Gents,—My horse was afflicted with distemper so badly that he could not drink for four days and refused all food. Simply applying Minard's Liniment cured him.

GRATEFUL-COMFORTING. EPPS'S COCOA. BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

"One of the most perfect instruments for sound instruction concerning the Church that has been offered to Churchmen. The whole temper of the book is courteous, kindly and humble. This book ought to be in the hands of every Churchman. Of all books upon this important subject it is the most readable. It is popular and attractive in style, in the best sense. We commend it most heartily to every Clergyman for personal help and parochial use. We would, if we could, place a copy in the hands of every member of the English-speaking race. And we are assured, that once begun, it will be read with interest from preface to conclusion. No better text book could be found for a class of adults, who desire to give a reason for their faith, and be Churchmen in reality.—Church Record.
