

packing-houses being well filled up, tends to keep prices down. The present quotations for dressed hogs are $5.50 to $6. Nearly every little town west of Toronto has from twenty hogs to three car loads, holding off for better prices. If cold weather favors them they may come out all right; but a continued thaw would result in breaking down prices materially from present figures. We quote long-clear bacon at 7½ to 8c. per lb.; hams, 11 to 11½; breakfast bacon, 10½ to 11c.; rolls, 9 to 9½c.; in barrelled pork there is nothing doing; lard is firmer at 8½ to 9½c. per lb.; eggs are easier at 24c. per dozen for fresh; receipts are increasing, and imported American eggs are still competing. As far as we can ascertain there are no pickled eggs offering in this market.

Wool.—In the wool market, enquiries are becoming more frequent, but as yet actual transactions are very circumscribed in extent. Prices remain unchanged.
