INSPECTION IS MADE

lows by the Board:—

Where a Provincial Government, by legislative enactment, defines an area of provincial Crown lands for soldier settlement by way of homestead the Board will cause an examination of the land to be made as to climate, soil, fertility, cost of clearing, drainage, rainfall, water content and available water supply. If the land is found to be suitable, the Board will assist settlement under the following conditions:—

Homesteads must be situate in timber country, within 12 miles, and in other country within 15 miles of a shipping point on a railway or navigable stream on which there is adequate transportation service.

on which there is adequate transportation service.

The Provincial Government shall, when clearing, drainage, irrigation, and railways are needed, carry out such work as may be necessary to ensure that the soldier settler will have a reasonable chance to succeed.

The settler must be enabled by provincial legislation to enter for a homestead upon such land, subject to settlement conditions similar to those of Dominion Lands Act and regulations founded thereon. If on inspection the Soldier Settlement Board finds that the homestead fulfils the conditions as to settlement advantages and productivity it will, upon agreement, pay the Provincial Government the amount chargeable and thereafter administer such entry in the same way as soldier entries are administered on Dominion Crown lands.

Where the Provincial Government desires also to charge such land with a sum designated by it as the original unimproved value thereof, the Board will, in the event of the settler abandoning his land, resell such land by public auction and will pay the Provincial Government the excess after satisfying the claims of the Board.

The Provincial Government will be expected to provide suitable school accommodation for the settlers' children.

Where the Provincial Government is prepared to sell Crown lands to settlers, the Board will, after inspection, assist the soldier in the same way as in respect of lands sold to soldier settlers under the provisions of the Order in Council of the 11th of February, 1919, or under any future legislation.

SOME EXPORTS HAVE NOW BEEN RESTORED

Export restrictions which had been lifted have had to be re-imposed, it is officially announced by the Canadian War Trade Board and the Canada Food Board. All regulations which were in force when the armistice was signed on November 11, except those affecting shipments to the United Kingdom, the United States, France (including Alsace-Lorraine), Belgium, Italy, and Japan, with the possessions and protectorates of those countries, are consequently again in force.

This step has been taken so as to coordinate the Allied policy on exports. When on January 20 last restrictions were removed on exports, except a few foodstuffs, unscrupulous exporters in other countries took advantage of the relief intended for our own exporters to ship commodities via Canada to consignees to whom they would not have been allowed to ship direct from their
