

VI

For Canada:

The signature of Canada to this Convention is subject to the reservation that Canada does not accept Article 12 paragraph 2 (1) of the Buenos Aires Telecommunication Convention. Canada agrees to be bound by the Radio Regulations and Telegraph Regulations annexed to this Convention but does not at present agree to be bound by the Additional Radio Regulations or the Telephone Regulations.

VII

For China:

The Delegation of the Republic of China to the Plenipotentiary Conference of the International Telecommunication Union at Buenos Aires is the only legitimate representation of China therein and is recognized as such by the Conference. Any Declarations or Reservations made in connection with or attached to the present Convention by the several Members of the Union, incompatible to the position of the Republic of China as set forth above, are illegal and therefore null and void. To those Members of the Union, the Republic of China does not, by signature of this Convention, accept any obligation arising out of the Buenos Aires Convention as well as all the Protocols in relation thereto.

VIII

For the Republic of Colombia:

The Republic of Colombia hereby formally declares that its signature of this Convention in no way implies acceptance of any obligation as regards the Telegraph and Telephone Regulations mentioned in Article 12 of the Buenos Aires Convention.

IX

For Cuba:

In view of the provisions of Article 12 of the Buenos Aires Convention and considering its stipulations therein, the Republic of Cuba hereby makes a formal reservation as regards its acceptance of the Telegraph and Telephone Regulations.
