

(2) The Requested State may provide any information, documents, records and objects in the possession of a government department or agency, but not publicly available, to the same extent and under the same conditions as would be available to its own law enforcement and judicial authorities.

(3) The Requested State may provide certified true copies of documents or records, unless the Requesting State expressly requests originals.

(4) Original documents, records or objects provided to the Requesting State shall be returned to the Requested State as soon as possible, upon request.

(5) Insofar as not prohibited by the law of the Requested State, documents, records or objects shall be provided in a form or accompanied by such certification as may be specified by the Requesting State in order to make them admissible according to the law of the Requesting State.

ARTICLE 9

PROVISION OF CRIMINAL RECORDS

Without limiting the provisions of Article 7, the Requested State shall, in accordance with law and upon request, provide records of the previous criminal convictions of a person.

ARTICLE 10

SEARCH AND SEIZURE

(1) The Requested State shall execute a request for a search and seizure.

(2) The competent authority that has executed a request for a search and seizure shall provide such information as may be required by the Requesting State concerning, but not limited to, the identity, condition, integrity and continuity of possession of the documents, records or objects seized and the circumstances of the seizure.

ARTICLE 11

PROCEEDS OF CRIME

(1) The Requested State shall, upon request, endeavour to ascertain whether any proceeds of a crime are located within its jurisdiction and shall notify the Requesting State of the results of its inquiries.

(2) When, pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article, suspected proceeds of crime are found, the Requested State shall take such measures as are permitted by its law to restrain and forfeit these proceeds;

(3) Proceeds forfeited pursuant to this Treaty shall accrue to the Requested Party, unless specified in a separate agreement.
