

BILATERAL ISSUES

Canada-Spain air agreement

- The agreement opens immediate opportunities for new services between Canada and Spain. We anticipate that Air Canada will take early advantage of the code-share opportunities through its European Star Alliance partners.
- We are hopeful that direct services will soon be introduced between Canada and Spain.
- Canada is pleased that the new agreement improves prospects for trade, investment, tourism and cultural links.
- It is important that Canada and Spain, who have an excellent trade and political relationship, continue to strengthen their ties further through liberalized air services.