

United Nations Sanctions
Policy Options for Canada

Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade

Page

Background Paper

I. Introduction	1
II. Lessons and Policy Options	3
III. Factors Influencing the Effectiveness of Sanctions	9
1. The Advantages and Disadvantages of Multilateralism	9
2. Specific Options	12
a) Sanctions	13
b) Inflation	13
c) Denying the target	14
d) Laying the groundwork for the use of force	15
e) Coordinated international measures	16
i) National Co-ordination	16
ii) Demand of Material Co-ordination	17
iii) Attempts to coordinate international measures	17
iv) Sociological and Psychological Arguments	17
3. What are our options?	18
a) Institutions for multilateralism	18
b) Implications for target	19
c) May, 1998	19
4. Target characteristics, target, target relations, type of sanctions	20
a) Targets as Sanctions and other observations	20
b) Co-ordinated economic sanctions	21
c) Targeted measures	25
i) Freezing assets	25
ii) Travel bans	26
iii) Diplomatic sanctions	27
iv) Cultural and sporting sanctions	28
v) Arms embargoes	28
5. Sanctions in context	29