

I am conscious of the heavy burden which you will be required to bear in seeing the United Nations through the difficult days ahead, but I am fully confident that you will meet the responsibilities of your new office in the best interests of the United Nations as a whole. I assure you of Canada's full cooperation in assisting you to discharge your duties".