

and in exchanges of professors. The Commission will establish for the months and years to come a reciprocal programme of exchanges and cultural promotion consistent with the orientations of Belgo-Canadian cultural co-operation. These orientations are aimed in particular at a growth in exchanges of persons in the academic and socio-cultural sectors and at an increase in the promotion of artistic creativity.

At the time of the meeting of the Mixed Commission the "Théâtre expérimental de Montréal" will be in Belgium. From the 8th to the 11th of October, they were playing in Liège at the "Centre d'Outremeuse" during the "Festival du jeune théâtre" with the plays Garden Party and Beaujeu. From October 14 to 19, they will perform the same plays in Louvain-la-Neuve. Reciprocally, the "Théâtre de Zygomars" (from Namur) will give performances in Quebec, New Brunswick, Ontario and Saskatchewan.
