

While in Europe, Mr. Clark will take the opportunity to meet with the recently appointed British Foreign Secretary, Mr. Douglas Hurd, on December 11 in London. The Ministers will exchange views on recent developments in Europe as well as other matters of mutual interest such as the evolving situation in Southern Africa.

Mr. Clark will also meet with Chief Emeka Anyaoku, Secretary General-elect at the Commonwealth Secretariat's London headquarters to review various Commonwealth matters, particularly the work of the Commonwealth Committee of Foreign Ministers on Southern Africa (CFM). At their recent meeting in Kuala Lumpur in October, the Commonwealth Heads of Government asked Canada's Secretary of State to continue his work as Chairman of the CFM. The Committee was established in Vancouver in 1987 to focus Commonwealth efforts aimed at the dismantling of apartheid in South Africa.
