EL SALVADOR—FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF MURDER OF ARCHBISHOP ROMERO—MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Bob Ogle (Saskatoon East): Madam Speaker, last week the motion I am about to move was not passed because of one hon. member who, I found out later, was not thinking about what he was saying at the time.

Some hon. Members: Oh, oh!

Mr. Ogle: I am sorry I used those words. He did not hear what the motion was.

Madam Speaker, I rise under the provisions of Standing Order 43 on a matter of urgent and pressing necessity, and I trust my motion will receive the unanimous consent of the House.

Last week was the first anniversary of the murder of Archbishop Oscar Romero of San Salvador. I move, seconded by the hon. member for Churchill (Mr. Murphy):

That this House join in an expression of solidarity with the people of El Salvador as they remember some of the last words of their beloved archbishop. "They can kill me, but the clamour for justice among the people they cannot silence."

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Madam Speaker: I take it from the applause of the House that the House does want to express these sentiments.
