Dear Sir Arthur,

I beg to enclose herewith cheques made out to the various Provincial Headquarters for the balance of amounts due them of the 1923 Federal Grant, which I would thank you to kindly "O.K." on the top left hand side of the receipt where I have made a black pencil tick.

In accordance with the Resolution passed at the recent Council meeting, I shall have to request further particulars from Vancouver before remitting their cheque, but I am doing that at once, and before the cheques get round through the regular routine of submittal to the Trustees no doubt the matter will be adjusted, if not, I will forthwith advise you.

Trusting that you Sir, were satisfied with all that transpired at the Council Meeting.

Total of cheques $3624.53

Present Bk Bal $4232.68

I have the honour to be
Faithfully

Arthur H. D. Hair
