

Abolition of War -

by Will A. Shenley.

When War's unholy fury flares, -
"This incubus of thousand years," -
This horrid monster that impairs
The peoples' peace with fulsome fears; -
Engenders aftermaths of spite
From the embattled misery, - Intolerable, cruelty to invite, - Calamitous rampage sanguine.
How long, how long, shall it endure?
