

ments on behalf of the Association which shall also be signed by the Recording Secretary; to represent the Association on all public occasions, to enforce a strict observance of its Constitution, By-Laws, and Rules; and exercise a general supervision over its affairs in conjunction with the Committee of Management. He shall present to the Association a full report of its affairs during his term of office, together with the report of the Committee of Management.

Vice-President.

SEC. 2.—The duties, powers and privileges of the Vice-President shall be the same as those of the President in his absence.

Recording
Secretary.

SEC. 3.—The Recording Secretary shall give notice of all meetings of the Association, attend all meetings, and keep a correct record of the proceedings thereat; keep a register of all propositions for membership, with all necessary dates, and read a summary of the same for the preceding year at each annual meeting, and also keep a roll signed by, and showing the age and residence of each member of the Association. He shall, immediately after each meeting of the Association, refer all propositions for membership to the Secretary of the Committee of Management, and within one week after the return of such notices shall notify all elected candidates of their election, directing their attention to such parts of the Constitution and By-Laws as may be necessary. It shall be his duty to furnish to the conveners of all committees the names of his associates on committee, together with a copy of the resolution or subject confided to them by the Association; to file lists of the names of members of all special Committees, with date of appointment, and to furnish the Cashier of the Bank at which the account of the Association is kept,

with
of the surer
office
posed
diate perfo

SEC
shall,
perfo
all tin
neces

SEC
the a
memb
and i
surer tify a
paym
regul
the sa
motio
secon
tioner
of the fully conne
meeti
a qua
stater
to th
due t

SEC
Finan
shall
ciatio
Mana