

Phillips said in the dis-against titaniferous ores experiment can verify, ctly fusible, if properly per cent of titanitic acid, admissible as slags in such as 65 per cent can

The objections to the refractory character of or that of others, or by compounds.

ions of temperature and enced from titanium de-furnace tests, and none in England and Norway.

r heat, considered more to imply against them a not offset by the smaller of fluxes necessary and of the furnace, as well for specific and numer-account the possibility forcing the production, d be easily realized with by the introduction of position of the slag, with against the use of these of as little value as those in a blast furnace.

acts as we have observed conditions in which we that enough has been r efforts to rehabilitate ld furnish to the metal-ilable in many districts