

NOTICE.

HAVING been frequently solicited to communicate to the public my thoughts on American Slavery, I have, in compliance with such request, endeavored to do so in the following pages. My only object is to awaken sympathy in behalf of the Slave, and, if possible, induce more extended and vigorous efforts for his emancipation.

JOSEPH J. E. WILLIAMS.