

be fixed, 236; thinks West should not be represented equally, 236; opposes representation of blacks, 242; objects to counting negroes in representation, 249; moves consideration of representation, 263; opposes quotas, 264; approves definition of powers of legislature, 265; opposes negative on State laws by legislature, 265, 266; thinks Congress ought not to be continued, 279; moves vote per capita in Senate, 309; moves three Senators from each State, 310; opposes election of executive by legislature, 315; on qualifications for legislature, 327; would not exclude debtors from legislature, 327; would modify mutual negative of branches of legislature, 347; opposes stated meeting of legislature, 348; moves legislature meet in May, 349; favors seven years' citizenship for members of legislature, 356; opposes inhabitants for members of legislature, 356; opposes slave representation, 360; objects to vacancies in Senate being filled by executive, 363; favors motion that vacancies in Senate be filled by legislature or executive, 364; proposes fourteen years' citizenship for members of Senate, 367; moves thirteen years' citizenship for members of Senate, 369; moves first branch of legislature name time of meeting, 371; opposes property qualification for legislature, 375; moves number for quorum, 377; thinks majority may expel members of legislature, 378; moves that one member call for yeas and nays, 379; on right of dissent in legislature, 379; moves those already citizens be eligible for legislature, 386; opposes ineligibility of members of legislature to offices, 398, 400; moves eligibility of members of legislature to army or navy, 401; opposes payment of legislature by States, 401; opposes appointments by Senate, 455; opposes treaty power of Senate, 458; moves power of legislature over public lands, 493; suggests legislature may call convention to amend constitution, 494; thinks ineligibility of members of legislature to offices will be evaded, 505; thinks legislature should judge privileges of members, 511; opposes originating revenue in House, 513; favors Vice President for president of Senate, 527; opposes treaties of peace with majority of Senate, 530; favors impeachment trials by Senate, 535; motion that no State be deprived of equal vote in Senate, agreed to, 575; seconds motion for appointment of judges by executive, 575; thinks salaries of judges may be increased, 577; seconds motion of appointment of judges by executive, with two-thirds of Senate, 577, 578; favors inferior judicial tribunals, 579; favors appointment of judges by executive, 592; favors permanent tenure of judges, 473; would allow increase in judges' salaries, 474; would preserve habeas corpus, 477; thinks money bills may originate in either branch of legislature, 216; opposes originating money bills in first branch of legislature, 217; favors power to originate money bills in Senate, 362, 404; opposes provision for money bills, 366; favors participation of Senate in money bills, 391; objects to committee to superintend minutes, 22; moves consideration of national union, 27; suggests consideration of national government, 27; explains "federal," "national," "supreme," etc., 28; asks Delaware delegates not to withdraw, 30; urges national considerations, 221; thinks mode of census should not be fixed, 231; thinks South will insist on slave trade, 240; moves commitment of question of slave trade, 446; would confine slave trade to Carolinas and Georgia, 467; withdraws motion, 468; favors direct taxation by representation, 241, 242, 247; favors federal power of police, 264; objects to guaranteeing State governments, 280; shows separation of powers, 299; thinks legislature should not ratify, 307; moves ratification by one convention, 309; would strike out clause relating to direct taxation, 317; favors property qualification for office, 329; opposes disqualification of debtors, 331; thinks Philadelphia or New York may be seat of government, 332; favors restricted franchise, 352; favors restrictive policy towards foreigners, 369; opposes State regulation of elections, 372; thinks seat of government should be fixed, 381; on obligations to foreigners, 387; insists upon revisionary power, 406; pro-