

TWO LITTLE BOYS REPORTED MISSING

Lived on Same Street, But Did Not Go Away
Together.

TWELVE AND FOURTEEN

Parents Think They Have Gone to Work on Farms.

Two little boys, Stanley Wilson of 96 Wood street, and Eddie Page of 11 Wood street, are causing their mothers much unhappiness. Stanley has been missing from his home for more than three months, and Eddie has been away since last Tuesday. It is believed that both boys are working on some farm, but not together. Each had evinced a desire to do so. Eddie Page is twelve years old. He has once before gone away for a few days for the sake of adventure, but on that occasion he immediately wrote to his mother of his whereabouts. He has not done so this time. On Tuesday when he left home he was dressed in a pull-over blue cotton jersey with light khaki pants, black stockings and boots. He has an open countenance, and is very popular with everybody with whom he comes in contact. His complexion is light with blue eyes.

Stanley Wilson of 96 Wood street, has been away for more than three months. He is of a sensitive disposition, and given to depression at times. His mother stated that everything had been done to locate him. A soldier who does not know Mrs. Wilson, visited Beamsville some weeks ago. While there he was present at a picnic, at which farmers, their sons and other boys engaged in athletic sports. Among these he met a lad who told him he was from Toronto. "Say," said the lad, who was about fourteen years old, "do you know the fish shop near Victoria and Queen?"

"Sure I do," replied the soldier. "Well, my father and mother are friends of the fish dealers, and father often used to come into the parlor at the fish shop for a chat." Mrs. Wilson hopes that this fact might prove to be a clue which would bring her boy back to her. Stanley is also of light complexion with blue eyes. When he left home he was dressed in a blue sweater with brown trousers, black boots and stockings, and wore a blue cap with a badge.

INSTRUCTOR PREVENTS FATALITY WHEN TWO FALL

Quick thinking and quick action by Flight Lieut. James Mogan of the Royal Air Force saved the lives of another airman and himself when the cadet whom he was instructing in advanced flying lost control of his airplane when sailing at the height of 2000 feet above Beamsville Camp. Cadet McGee, the pupil, was endeavoring to loop the loop when his machine started a spinning nose dive, but for the presence of mind of the other officer, would have ended in death for both of them. Lieut. Mogan, by means of the dual control system, managed to flatten the machine when within 100 feet of the ground. This greatly lessened the blow of the fall. Cadet McGee sustained a broken leg and was picked up in an unconscious condition. The lieutenant received only minor injuries.

STUDY OF GERMAN WILL BE OPTIONAL

Pending the revision of the departmental regulations, those now in existence, and the amendments made up to May, are being reprinted, in order to meet the immediate requirements of teachers and school boards, according to an announcement made by Hon. Dr. Cody, minister of education, yesterday. The revision is now under way, but before adoption will in all probability be submitted to the Ontario Educational Association. German, as it has already been announced, will not be compulsory for a specialist's certificate, and in this connection it is expected that before the opening of the next session arrangements will be completed with the universities concerned for options in the specialist course where German is now required. Those who have begun courses may complete them as they now stand, or choose an optional subject provided the modifications are recommended by the university, and sanctioned by the minister of education. Notice will be given when the changes have been completed.

A year hence it is thought, Spanish will be authorized as an option in the commercial course of colleges and high schools, and provision will be made for those who take the specialist course. For teachers of such courses not now competent to teach Spanish summer schools will be provided.

SAILORS' CAMPAIGN TO BE IMPORTANT

Col. Williams Addresses Captains Who Will Be in Charge of Work.

In the four years of war Toronto has had various campaigns, but no one of these has been so important as the one that will be put on during "Sailors' Week."

Such was the statement of Col. Cecil Williams in his opening address to the captains who will form the leaders in the women's section of the campaign which is to be launched in Toronto on September 3, with the object of raising $500,000 for the sailors who form the men of the merchant marine service. The news has come today, said the speaker, that our men are now within three miles of the old Hindenburg line. A sense of shame must come when we think that the men who have made this possible have been neglected by us all.

The supreme value of the ships of the merchant marine to the empire was emphasized throughout the address. While the value of the work of the ships is recognized, the work of the men who man them, but have received little recognition, was dwelt upon at several angles by Col. Williams. It was pointed out that casual workers in the mines of Canada get $3 a day, while the men on the ships get only half that amount. When they are lost at sea or in battle there is no provision made for their families, or if disabled there is no allowance made for their disabilities.

A Comparison Drawn.
A soldier or a sailor of the navy when fighting is provided with food, medical care, comforts and facilities. His family receives government aid supplemented by the patriotic fund, and if permanently injured there is a pension. For the sailor of the merchant marine there are none of these things. The wife and children of these brave men may starve and go to the workhouse if not assisted by the public.

That Toronto has grown prosperous on the war was pointed out by Col. Williams.

It is claimed by some that it is the government that should take up the matter of compensation to the sailors, but the speaker pointed out that after four years of intensive campaigning the patriotic fund is not yet up to the cause of the government. Toronto is now prosperous owing to the war, concluded Col. Williams, and the people of Toronto should form a living barrage and go over the top to do their "bit" by raising $500,000 during sailors' week.

Carries War on his Back.
"The sailor carries the war on his back," was the statement of F. Wise, chairman of the campaign. Canada has made two billion dollars in shells which the sailors have carried across. Fifteen thousand sailors have been wounded. Mr. Wise said that owing to changes brought about by the war, most of the sailors of today were trained to serve on German ships or with German sailors for five years after the war. To give these men a trade and provide for their support was the note of the address throughout.

The chairman explained that the city had been divided into six districts. He spoke of the enthusiasm of the workers and made special mention of the inspiration given to the movement by the activities in its behalf of Rev. John Burke of Newman Hall, and his wonderful body of young men. The factories in the women's section will be canvassed by Mr. Stephenson, because of the inconvenience of women canvassers going in on the night shifts.

Meeting of Captains.
A meeting of the captains will be held at one o'clock Tuesday at the King Edward, when arrangements will be furthered and everyone present will pay their own expenses.

Subscribers to the fund are reminded that exemptions on income tax are being made by the government. Subscribers to the fund are reminded that exemptions on income tax are being made by the government.

SIX MONTHS' SENTENCE FOR SEDITIOUS WORDS

T. G. Matheson was sentenced to six months in the Ontario Reformatory, when he appeared before Magistrate Denison in the police court yesterday morning on a charge of using seditious expressions and with exciting a crowd to riot on Sunday evening, Aug. 4. T. H. Lennox appeared as his counsel, while Crown Attorney Corley prosecuted.

Detective Croome, in giving evidence, stated that he was present at the street meeting and had heard Matheson address the crowd as follows:

"I am informed that there are two men already dead from the blows of the policemen's batons, one a returned soldier. I was speaking to a man in Riverdale Park this afternoon who told me that if the eyes of that dead soldier were photographed there would be a picture of a policeman on them."

Matheson had then asked the crowd, "What should be done with that policeman?"

"Shoot him," shouted someone. Another one yelled, "Throw him in the bay."

The detective said Matheson told the crowd that a woman had soaked her handkerchief in the blood of one of the beaten returned soldiers and waving it had declared her intention of sending it to France to her son there.

In summing up the evidence, the magistrate said that there was no doubt that Matheson had circulated false reports and ones that would excite a crowd and then sentenced him to the six months' term.
