

ETERNAL, AT LONG ODDS, LANDS THE BROOKLYN

Three-Year-Olds Run One, Two, Three in Historic Handicap.

New York, June 23.—J. W. McCalland's three-year-old colt, Eternal, by Sweep, won the historic Brooklyn Handicap at one mile and a furlong over the Aqueduct race track today in 1:49.4. The popular favorite, Purchase, which was favored by the public, was fourth in the race, finishing second, three lengths behind the winner, and four lengths in front of Questionnaire, an extreme outsider in the wagering, which took third money.

The winner was bet at 6 to 1, at which he was heavily backed by many who have been following him in the last few days. The colt made up for his previous disappointments by his victory today. Many showed handicappers selected Eternal, as they believed he was simply thrown into the race with the lightest of odds.

The story of the race, however, really belongs to Purchase, which carried 117 pounds, spending a great deal of his energy in the early stages of the race, when he almost unseated jockey Loftus at least three times. L'Erant cut out the race for three-quarters of a mile before Schuttlinger on Eternal ran him into submission.

The winner's time, 1:49.4, is the best two-furlong time in the history of the race, and the record for nine furlongs made by H. F. Whitney's Borrow, in the event two years ago.

Three-year-olds have not been very successful in the Brooklyn in previous years, as only five of them had been returned as winners in the thirty times the event was run. Today, however, three-year-olds dominated the final, and placed horses all being of that age.

After a delay of six minutes caused by the cutting up of the favorite, Purchase, at the post, the twelve horses were sent off to a good start, with L'Erant in the lead until he reached the turn out of the back stretch. Schuttlinger, on Eternal, steadily waited right behind the flying leader until the latter showed signs of weariness at the six-furlong point. Then Eternal took the lead and opened up a gap of three lengths as the field swung into the long home stretch.

Four Purches were in tight quarters, but clear sailing, and, as they turned for home, Eternal was four lengths in front of the favorite, Purchase, who was whipped by Loftus, running third and gaining with every stride. Coming down the stretch, Eternal ran steadily and showed no inclination to desist. He had plenty in reserve when Loftus made his final effort to catch him with a drive. Eternal went right along, and won easily by three lengths, while Purchase came second, followed by Questionnaire, who was beaten by a head.

The value of the purse to the winner was $450. FIRST RACE—The Kingston, for 3-year-olds and up, handicap, 5 furlongs: 1. Old Koenig, 150 (Loftus), 4 to 1, 1 to 2, 1 to 2.
