SOUTH AMERICANS DEVELOPING TROUBLE.

World Office, Friday, Sept. 28.

World Office, Friday, Sept. 28.

Things are going the way of the South American ventures at the moment. Between uprisings of two kinds—one among the inhabitants of some of the South American communities, and the other disturbances from beneath the ground—holders of the various stocks are a little disturbed. The banks have little enough money for home securities at the present, and offerings of Rios, Mexicans and others of this ilk have to be paid for in cash. Realizing from institutions who received the common stocks of these concerns as a bonus is gradually uncovering speculative holdings, and, with these offerings on a market cramped for money, the surprise is that the prices do not decline much faster. There is little support from shorts, as most of these outstanding contracts have already been canceled by purchases at higher prices than those now current Among those given to taking the short side of the market there is still an idea that considerable money can yet be made in Rios and Mexicans, and suggestions were offered to-day that the first-named would go down to 25, and the latter to 40, before the necessary liquidation would have exhausted itself.

Marshall, Spader & Co. wired J. G.Beaty, King Edward Hotel, at the close of the market:

Wheat—Has been tame and a trifle as er tl an yesterday. A little less urgency in the foreign bids and a disappointing gain in Liverpool prices following the advance here yesterday has led to considerable taking of profits by longs. This put some weight on the market and caused a slight reaction. Receipts northwest continue light and cash wheat continues strong. Argentine shipments 896,000 bushels this week v, 944,000 bushels year ago. Shipments from United States and Canada this week 4,575,000 bribels v, 2,065,000 bushels year ago. Argentine reported weather favorable and wheat crop doing well, raking no mention of locusts. The close was a little heavy at about low figures of the day. night as if the market would work come lower.

Ennis & Stoppani wired to J. L. Mitchell, McKinnon Building:

Wheat—Altho there was a large trade to day it was principally of a professional character with some of the leading longs attempting to secure profits. The market however, moved within a narrow range due very largely to the fact that a prominent house with strong eastern connections absorbed most of the offerings and near the close it seemed to be the opinion of some of the best traders that the interest represented by the house referred to was desirous of adding to its present holdings. The action of this interest in the market is causing considerable comment as it is very clear that manipulative tactics in favor of higher prices could avail but very little, owing to the fact that supplies are so large. There appears to be some little selling on the strong spots for northwestern account and it was reported that the railroads in that territory had despatched from their ferninal points between 45 and 50 ergines in orde, to clear the sidings of cars of wheat. Export bids were lower,

Melady & Co. had the following at the close of the market: Wheat—Cables were strong and the market opened up about %c above last night's close, but with the advance there was some free selling by those who had bought lower down, resulting in lower prices. The cable enquiry at the moment is very fair, but prices are not on line with the market. The clearances from American ports this

COAL

A Second Crow's Nest

Coal is actually to-day the greatest commodity of the world. With coal we rus sur mills and factories and our great railroads; with coal we propel our ships, previous our navies, and warm our homes; with coal we generate and produce electricity, with a few exceptions, where water power is available, but there are not very many Miagara Falls, nowever; with coal we produce iron, copper, lead, silver, gold, and all other metals that we need, and must have, because all of those metals are to be found mixed in with the rock and in the ere.

Without coal we could not make coke, and coke made from a certain kind of high-class bitumineus coal is the only fuel yet known to man that produces a heat mense enough to melt ore and hard rock into a liquid, by which process we are enabled to extract the metals we need.

England would not be the great world power she is to-day if it was not for her mexhaustible supply of coal.

Coal is the basis of all industrial and commercial wealth.

Coal-mining in British Columbia has always been a great success. It is a great deal like diamond-mining in South Africa—a bonance of the first magnitude.

The great mountain barrier of the Rockies shuts out the eastern coal, leaving the great Pacific coast to be supplied by the British Columbia fields, excepting a small tonnage from the State of Washington of a very inferior quality; in fact, so small tonnage from the State of Washington of a very inferior quality; in fact, so small tonnage from the State of Washington of a very inferior quality; in fact, so small tonnage from the State of Washington of a very inferior quality; in fact, so small tonnage from the State of Washington of a very inferior quality; in fact, so small tonnage from the State of Washington of a very inferior quality; in fact, so small tonnage from the Vancouver Island, and pay the duty on it, but, neither the Washington nor the Vancouver Island coal is of any use for furnace and smelters the Washington nor the Vancouver Island coal is of any use for furnace and smelters a

There are no "ifs" about coal-mining. There never was known a failure in coalin British Columbia, if quantity and quality and shipping facilities were assured, and the business was managed right and honestly.

The price of coal and its commercial value is always advancing from year to the stock should begin to pay handsome dividends, and in another year or two may have a cash valuation on the market from the dividends it then will pay of as least $10.00 per share. This calculation is based on sound and conservative business judgment, and on well-tried laws of natural growth. It is quite safe to say that when the Amalgamated Coal Company shall have fully equipped its four properties on Cold Water River, in Nicols Valley, B.C., and has built up a market for its preduct, and can produce coal and coke on a large scale, which may require six to seven years to accomplish (taking the Crow's Nest Coal Co. as an example), this stock should then be worth on its own merit, from the dividend it then will pay $100.00 per share.
