Value to winner, $1650. Amelia Jenks left the post with the leaders, and, after carrying Detroit and Alfred the Great along at a killing pace, drew away into an easy lead entering home stretch; was under restraint at end. Detroit carried wide at home turn and dropped back, but closed again last furlong. Bob Co weakened in final drive. Chief Kee closed a big gap. The Monk and English Esther crowded out of it at start and had no chance.

16 THIRD RACE—Selling, 1⅛ miles, purse $500, for 3-year-olds and up:

Time .24 4-5, .49 3-5, 1.15, 1.44, 1.56 3-5. Start good. Won driving. Place same. Winner Kenwood Stable's b.g., 4, by Goldcrest—Fond Recollection. Trained by C. DeWitt. Value to winner, $405. Golconda under slight restraint; trailed along in behind the leaders until making turn into home stretch, where he moved up stoutly; wore the leaders down last furlong, and was going away at end. Ontario dashed to the front when break came and held his field safe for speed until last sixteenth, where he began to stop. Monsignor only galloping first five furlongs. Burns took him to the outside when he made his move. This horse can do better. The Shaughraun only galloping all the way.

17 FOURTH RACE—One mile, purse $500, for mares, all ages:

Ind. Horses.	Wt.	St.	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Betting Open.	Betting Cl.	Pl.

Time .25 1-5, .51, 1.16 4-5, 1.43. Start good. Won easily. Place easily. Winner H. G. Bedwell's br.f., 3, by Woolsthorpe—Black Tilly. Trained by H. G. Bedwell. Value to winner, $380. Jeanette M. under restraint to stretch turn; closed with a rush when called on, and, after assuming and easy lead, won with a bit in reserve. Chilla moved up on the inside rounding turn into home stretch, and easily disposed of Tasley, but faltered when winner challenged. Tasley showed early speed, but tired as if short. Topsy Robinson lacked speed. She has evidently gone back.

18 FIFTH RACE—Coventry Steeplechase, handicap, about 2½ miles, purse $800, for 4-year-olds and upward:

Ind. Horses.	Wt.	St.	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Betting Open.	Betting Cl.	Pl.
5 Steve Lane	144	1	3	3	2-1½	1-n	Simpson	6-1	10-1	2-1

(5)Thistledale	165	2	Fell.				T. Donohue	1-1	1-1	2-5

Time 5.03. Start good. Won driving. Place easily. Winner A. Cope's ch.g., 6, by Gigantuem—Dal. Trained by J. W. Graver. Value to winner, $805. Simpson avoided the pace first two turns of the field, and waited until last half-mile before making his effort; closed stoutly on the leaders last quarter, and, wearing Byzantine down, outlasted him at end. The latter got a desperate ride and ran to his best form. Ray was working hard on him all last quarter. Sobell lost one of his stirrups at eighteenth fence, or he would have won. Thistledale struck the fifth jump with his knees and turned a somersault.

Sale of Hendrie Horses To-day

Messrs. Burns & Sheppard are holding a sale of thorobred brood mares and yearlings to-day, at 10 a.m., for the estate of the late Mr. William Hendrie. The firm on previous occasions sold Kelvin for $90 and Shimonese for $250, both at Valley Farm sales. Among the lot to be offered are Dance, Snowdrift, Bronze, Cascade, Otsi Keta, Rosina, Vokes, Favorita, Sugar Plum, Scotch Moor and several unnamed, tho well-bred, youngsters.

Entries close to-night with R. Greer, 13 Temperance-street, for the big Dunlop road race. An effort is being made to put on an old time high wheel race. Fred Doll, the old T.B.C. rider, has already entered. The entry list to date totals over 40 riders for the big handicap race.

Cave Adsum

5-1, WON

Cave Adsum was my one Best Bet yesterday. You all wondered if he was in good condition; you didn't know, but I did. I saw him work a mile in 1.43 flat; that was good enough for me, so I handed him out as my One Best Bet. He just sailed home an easy winner when Tommy Rice turned his head loose.

GOLD DUST

13-5, WON

Gold Dust was another one I told you to go to for the family plate, and he rolled home.

SOIL, 8-5, WON

Soil was the baby we finished up the day on, and to tell you the truth, if the DIXON bunch had more pockets they would have more money. It is not necessary for me to blow my own horn as my name is made and established. Like the Statue of Liberty I stand alone.

To-Day, 15-1, Hot 'Un

This is one that will wake up with a start and tin can from the rise of the barrier. This is another one that you would not have a ticket on on dope, but the word has been passed around by the wise bunch that there will be tall doings on this bird to-day. Don't miss to-day, if you do you will kick yourself for the next six months.

Rice took Cave Adsum back when break came and trailed his field until rounding the far turn, where he began to close; gained steadily, and, finishing with a rush, drew away into an easy lead at end. Jack Parker used up making the early pace, and had nothing left when winner caught him. The weight told on Green Seal last quarter. Plaudmore stopped in stretch run.

Time .24, .50 2-5, 1.15 4-5. Start good. Won driving. Place same. Winner G. E. Dudley's b.g., 3, by Ben Strome—Earth. Trained by G. E. Dudley. Value to winner, $440. Soil off with the leaders and a keen contender entire trip; lost ground by making wide turn entering home stretch, but closed again and outlasted Chivari in final drive. Latter slipped thru next the rail entering home stretch and dashed into a commanding lead, but quit under punishment. Nick o' Time showed smart performance and is worth remembering. Odin was taken up first quarter, and was only galloping.
