Note and Comment

The ball-tossers gave the faithful fans a thriller on getaway day. There was something in the ozone that aided the hitters and fielders and doped the pitchers. The ball from the bat of Curtis in the fourth took an in-shoot just as it was sailing to the left-field sack. O'Hara salaamed with his ungloved right and there it stuck for keeps, and only one of the Royals scored, instead of the four, including the batsman, who was robbed of a clean home run.

The fact that Jeffries left the ring with his mind fully made up never to enter into another championship battle was responsible for his taking on weight. To train has been a heroic struggle on the part of Jeffries. He remarked to a friend on Tuesday that he would not go thru the same siege again for a million dollars. Getting back to his old form has undoubtedly been a harder task than Jeffries ever expected.

It was a great day for the governors. Hughes put in his oar in New York State, where, after Sept. 1, there'll be no more hoss races.

The performance of O. B. Sheppard's pater, Richard L., at Exhibition Park, was of the stellar order, and constitutes a record for the year 2.183-4, over the half-mile track, the last in 1.081-4. The Dufferin Club are providing nice sport without the assistance of betting.

The Young Thistle rink, skipped by W. B. Graham, scored a big victory over Begs of Canadas in the Consolation; score 16 to 9. E. Colts was the lead, J. Langskill second and C. T. Littster vice. They meet Tom Rennie this afternoon.

"Davis' Perfection" 10c. Cigar WHEN BENJ. FRANKLIN, back in 1778, visited Montreal on business, the cigars were not quite so good as they are to-day. We venture to think that if he had been able to get "Davis' Perfection" Cigar he would have been still more keen to stay in a live town, instead of Philadelphia.

To-day, in the Montreal newspaper founded by the worthy American, the traveller from Franklin's city may see the advertisement of a cigar worth taking back and paying duty on.

"Davis' Perfection" 10c Cigar will please particular smokers. It is not merely a mild cigar, but it has the rich. mellow taste and charming aroma of the best Havanas.

The Leafs have an off-day to-day, but will open at Providence to-morrow. They leave this afternoon for the Clam City. Manager Ed. Barrow of the Montreal Club will work Burchell against Balti-more to-day at Baltimore.

Rochester made a garrison finish against Buffalo yesterday. The Bisons are the coming tailenders of the Eastern League.

Umpire Tom Kelly received a foul tip off Curtis' bat in the eighth right under the chin. We remember Jack Toft getting hit in the same place last year at Dia-mond Park, and the said John swallowed nething more than saliva. The errors to Mulien and Vaughn yes-terday came at stages where a double-play looked sure in each case.

Cornwall Send in Protest on accommodate the crowd that will go to the lacrosse match at the island on Sat-Lalonde - Cap.-Tecumseh Plan Opens This Morning.

Preston, who gathered up all the all-star C. L. A. players last fall, had little trouble in defeating the Thistles of Fer-gus at Fergus yesterday in an Intermedi-ate C. L. A. game. Preston were always ahead, leading in the first quarter 2 to 0, 3 to 2 at half-tline, 6 to 3 at three-quarter-time, and 8 to 3 at the finish. Jack Kearns of Arthur was referee, being called upon to inflict many penalties, as the game was very rough.

Caps have decided not to play Groulx, the former National player, against Tecumsehs Saturday at the island. They claim he is not in condition, but a despatch from Ottawa states that they are not going to take any chances on a protest, so eager are they to win the game on Saturday.

resident Lol Solman of the N. L. U. has received Cornwall's protest over Lalonde playing with Nationals, and has called a meeting of the league for Monday night at Montreal. Whether or not Cornwall will win the protest remains with one club—the Shampocks. Cornwall, Montreal and Torontos will vote against Lalonde being allowed to play with Nationals, while Nationals, Capitals and Tecumsess will vote that Lalonde be allowed to play.

J. L. SULLIVAN SAYS

"Is Jeffries all right inside? That's question!" remarked John L. Sullivan to a crowd of listeners the other "He may look as fine as silk night. "He may look as fine as silk, trained down to fighting weight, muscles showing and all that sort of thing, but are his bellows O. K.? If they are he'll knock the tar out of Johnson as soon as he gets to him, altho that may take some time. If Jeff's wind is affected in the slightest degree he may have trouble with this

"Jeff has been badly advised. He's sot a gang around him that won't help him any. They mean well, but that's all. Why, this fellow Corbett. who is talking so much, is 44 years old and couldn't stand up for four rounds with little Ketchel. Neither could Choynski, who is older than Corbett. Of what earthly use are these back numbers to Jeffries? He can't try out his punches on either of them, because he doesn't want to call in the corone Cy. Barger, the former Rochester pitcher and first-baseman, is winning right at Canoe Place Inn I got off all the weight necessary and I never felt better any when he beat Chicago in fourteen innings. Cy's double, one of his four hits, scored the winning run.

"When I trained for Corbett down as possible, are only love taps. Bob weight necessary and I never felt better in my life. But in the fight I soon with Jeff, is 50 years old. > end of credit. But a man who says he's got a cinch at this stage of the game either doesn't know a thing about the fighting game or is blinded about the fighting game or is blinded rience after his long layoff. Boxing a by prejudice. It's a mistage for bett and the other windy guys around doesn't do any good at all. It's the real Jeffries to tell him he can't lose, for fighting in the ring on July 4 that is Jeffries to tell him he can't lose, los and is going to tell the tale. It will be far different from training in camp. Jeff has got to have speed and stamina to has got to have speed and stamina to get Johnson's right, and you can bet right now that Johnson is going to keep away. This isn't a ten round affair, remember, but a 45 round fight, which, if it goes the limit, will last more than three hours of actual work. In that case the men will be inside the ropes for four hours, and Jeffries must be fit to stay that long without being exhausted. It he's right inside, well and good, and I hope he will be. Looks don't go for much. It's the old lung power and the stomach.

Some cranks are inclined to think that Montreal will lift the Minto Cup when they go after it. If they do, they will save Torontos a lot of expense and put Vancouver in the down-and-out class, for they, with all their all-stars, will have nobody to play against, for just as soon as New Westminster lose the cup they will fade away from the pro. ranks.

Two of the bills bear the name of Assemblyman Perkins and the third, the arti-oral bookmaking bill, that of Senator Agnew. The Agnew bill, chapter 488, makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment, for a period of not more than one year, for a person who makes a book on a horse race, "with or without writing." The law is designed to make the cup they will fade away from the pro. ranks. as New Westminster lose the cup they will fade away from the pro ranks.
