TORONTO CITIZENS GENEROUS AS EVER

Not So Many Large Donations This Year, But Roses Sold Readily.

ALL MADE IN CITY

Over Three Hundred Thousand Had Been Sold Before Noon.

Toronto citizens again did splendidly yesterday when they contributed $15,864.92, as a result of the Queen Alexandra Rose Day collection. Toronto's third Alexandra Rose Day opened with brilliant promise which continued without alloy until the clouds gathered up about three o'clock and a heavy downpour of rain sent the workers scuttling to their cars and other shelter, like flocks of chickens to the wings of the old mother hen. From an early hour street corners were buzzing with the activities of the flower-sellers in pretty dresses and rose, pink, green or yellow or the silk sweaters.

Outside districts did their work so well that when the wayfarers reached the downtown sections there was often nothing left but the "pickings." The teams in every district kept at their work courageously and the public as a whole seconded their efforts. It was noticeable, however, that large subscriptions were lacking the majority contenting themselves with the silver nickel or dime. Occasional bills of one or two dollars found their way into the pink box of the rose-seller and at least one fifty dollar-bill is recorded, but these were rarities. While the citizens generally were spontaneous in the giving, there were not a few "sneakers" whose set faces aroused speculation as to the reason of their attitude.

"I've met more deaf people to-day than I ever did before," said one of the sellers after a number of the above class had come within her radius, but the generosity of the majority put irony to flight and the worker was at it again in search of fresh fields for her roses.

Roses Sold Here.
Three hundred thousand of the little pink blossoms were distributed amongst the captains and their workers and early in the forenoon the call for replenishment had gone out. At one section in West Toronto no less than three thousand were sold at a single corner before seven o'clock. Reports in various parts of the city varied, some being that things were "draggy" while others had the cheery "fine and dandy" as a report. Interest was added to the occasion by the knowledge that the same beneficent work was going on in England where the beautiful day originated, at the very same time that it was taking place in Toronto. Unlike the roses used in other years, those of yesterday were made here, conditions prohibiting their coming from England. This has opened up a new industry for our city, the originator of the work being Mrs. White, who has gone to the homes of crippled girls to teach them to make the pretty petals of roses standing in front like an ensign. Another belonging to Mrs. Sharkey, stationed on Richmond, had the grey roof and sides bordered and festooned with roses. Still another which attracted general attention was a car in Mrs. Ambrose Small's section, where she and her assistants, Mrs. A. E. Wilson and Mrs. A. E. Apter, were surrounded by a crowd admiring the doll which, like a real live baby, rose up out of a great pink rose cradle, holding in its hand a scroll which said, "Help the Kids."

Homes to Benefit.
The children's homes and hospitals which will benefit are the I. O. D. E. Preventorium, Home for Incurable Children, Boys' Home, Girls' Home, Protestant Orphan's Home, Sacred Heart Orphanage, Sick Children's Hospital, Children's Home in Earlscourt, the Infants' Home, the Central Board of the Toronto Cheque and Children's Shelter.

The work of Rose Day is under the auspices of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, and the organization was superintended by Mrs. R. S. Wilson, regent of the Municipal Chapter, who had for her committee, Mrs. E. F. B. Johnston, Mrs. Angus MacMurray, Miss Elizabeth Dixon, Mrs. W. R. Riddell, Mrs. John Bruce, Miss Knowles, Mrs. Harold Scandrett, Miss Etta Jolley and Miss Flora Macdonald. The following are the captains of the districts: Mrs. George, Mrs. R. S. Mearns, Mrs. A. F. Rutter, Mrs. W. R. Jackson, Mrs. T. H. Hall, Mrs. H. R. Robinson, Mrs. W. H. King, Mrs. J. A. Beal, Mrs. H. Howard, Mrs. Ambrose Small, Mrs. R. H. Cameron, Mrs. Charles Eason, Mrs. Fred Armstrong, Mrs. Norman Beal, Mrs. J. A. Strachan, Mrs. Johnstone, Mrs. S. M. Sterling, Mrs. W. J. Law, Mrs. George Royce, Mrs. H. B. Johnston.

Nerves Were Paralyzed

Astonishing Cure Effected After Three Years of Helplessness—Now Healthy and Happy.

Stratford, Ont., June 20.—All Stratford is interested in this report of the cure of paralysis by use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Some years ago Mr. Wik had typhoid fever. After a relapse paralysis set in and he was confined to his bed and later he was confined to a helpless condition for three and a half years.

He remained for Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to cure him. The restoration was gradual, but he felt the old strength returning and kept up the treatment until he was well again and able to return to his work.

Mrs. J. Wik, 75 Cambria street, Stratford, Ont., writes: "In 1898 my husband was taken ill with typhoid fever. Later he had a relapse and paralysis of the nerves set in. For about three and a half years he was helpless and under the doctor's care. Then we had a specialist, who held a consultation with our own doctor. The result was we were told that all he required was building up. A friend advised us to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. At first we found the whole pill too strong, so we cut it in two, and later the whole pill. The results were simply splendid. Of course after such a long illness it took some time to get his system built up again. But in about a year and a half he was able to go to work again, and has not lost any time since. For the last six months he has used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food at intervals, and has never been disappointed in results. He generally takes one Kidney-Pill a week, also. With this combination he keeps well, with no signs of the old trouble. We can therefore recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and also the Kidney-Pill, very highly."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.—(Advertisement.)

Conboy, Vice-President, Mrs. A. M. Huestis, Rev. Canon Plummer, Rev. Father Minahan, Col. Farewell (Whitey), Dr. P. H. Bryce (Ottawa), and Miss Clark. The deputation advocated the appointment by the government of a royal commission to enquire into and report on the subject of the best means of dealing with the problem of the feeble-minded in Ontario. The attention of the minister was drawn to the fact that resolutions had been recently passed by Anglican synod and the Roman Catholic hierarchy favoring the appointment.

Mr. McPherson expressed his sympathy with the deputation, and said that the advisability of interesting like associations in other provinces in this work, in the hope that they would be able to present a united front to the Dominion Government to take steps to prevent the admission of feeble-minded into the country, thereby simplifying the problem in the several provinces.

RESERVED JUDGMENT IN INCOME TAX CASE

Counsel Argued That if Crown Officials Are Exempt, Judges Should Also Benefit.

At Osgoode Hall yesterday before a municipal court composed of Chief Justice McLeod and Justices Riddell, Hodgins, Lennox and Rose, judgment was reserved on the income tax case brought against Judge Morson by the city of Toronto.

The judges, however, intimated that the court considered itself bound by the case of Abbott vs. St. John in the supreme court which resulted in the decision that Dominion officials were liable to assessment under provincial acts.

R. A. Reid, who appeared for Judge Morson, took the ground that the judge's income was exempt from taxation. This argument was rejected when Mr. Justice Riddell said that the judge's income was not exempt from taxation. The city's assessment of the judge's income was also rejected.

SUIT OVER MORTGAGE.

Claims Defendant Illegally Transferred Half Interest in Property.

In the non-jury session court before Justice Clute, Samuel McNairn is suing Gabriel Goodman, Rachel Goodman, Samuel Lichman and Annie Lichman in connection with a mortgage. It is alleged that on October 15, 1912, Samuel and Annie Lichman borrowed $4900 from Gabriel Goodman, who took a mortgage on their property on D'Arcy street. He in turn transferred the mortgage to the plaintiffs and when the loan was due he refused to pay it. McNairn now claims the amount of the mortgage and interest which he places at $5879. He also alleges that Gabriel Goodman illegally transferred a half interest in the property to his wife and asks for a declaration to that effect.

CITY HALL NOTES

The board of control has turned down the request of the lord mayor of London, Eng., for assistance to the St. Andrew's Hospital at Dollie's Hill.

The board of control has sent a telegram of congratulation to Sir Robert Borden on the occasion of his becoming prime minister of Canada.

About 70 cadets and officers of the Canadian cruiser Niobe will visit Toronto for three days, beginning June 26, and the city will bear the expense of their stay.

At present the city is not disposed to be responsible for payment of $9 per cent of the cost of the confederation celebration. The celebration cost will be $4300. The board of control will consider the matter.

All the heads of city departments, with the exception of Works Commissioner Harris, held a private conference, under the chairmanship of Mr. Bradshaw, in the collector's office yesterday afternoon on how to increase the revenue of the city.

The special committee considering the cost situation have decided to hold their meetings in private. A sub-committee has been appointed to deal with the transportation problem and will approach the government on the matter.

In the revision court yesterday, William Ardagh, one of the commissioners, declared that the poorer classes of property owners in the outlying districts were assessed higher and nearer their actual value than big downtown buildings.

The special committee considering the cost situation have decided to hold their meetings in private. A sub-committee has been appointed to deal with the transportation problem and will approach the government on the matter.

NO INFANTILE PARALYSIS.

Dr. J. W. S. McCullough, provincial health officer, stated yesterday that there were no prospects of a recurrence of an outbreak of infantile paralysis in Ontario this summer. One case at Guelph was the only one reported in the province. Last year there were seven deaths and in one month alone 76 cases were reported.

HAIR CUT COSTS MORE.

It is now the high cost of hair-cutting. On June 25 the barbers of the city have agreed to raise the charge to 35 cents, an increase of 10 cents per hair cut. The tonorial artists met yesterday and fixed the price and the day, claiming that the present 25 cents charge is not commensurate with the advance in wages and fittings and the H. C. of L. generally.

REQUIRES FILE OF MONEY TO BUY SCHOOL COAL

Superintendent of Supplies Says He Will Need Over Sixty Thousand Dollars.

Apparently the board of education has a big job in front of it to meet the coal situation for the coming winter, and according to superintendent of supplies, William Kerr, if he is to follow instructions as given by the finance committee and get a stock in hand he will require an extra appropriation of about $64,175. This is due to the abnormal conditions, but it must be remembered this will last until next May. "It is a fact, that we shall have to have more money," said Mr. Kerr. "I will only purchase to the extent of the money in hand unless I am ordered to the contrary, and then if no more money is forthcoming, I suppose we shall have to incur an overdraft up to the end of the year."

FINED TWO HUNDRED.

Had to Pay, Altho He Was Only Holding the Bottle for Another.

A novel interpretation of the Ontario Temperance Act was given in the police court yesterday when W. B. Shirley, a turnstile man at Hanlan's Point, was fined $200 and costs for having liquor in his possession.

Counsel for the defence argued that his client had been handed the bottle by a man to hold for a while and that in the meantime he was caught with the liquor. The excuse did not avail, however, the magistrate deciding that to hold was to have.

NO CITY HALL MEETINGS.

W. Matheson, while making a recruiting speech in front of the city hall yesterday afternoon, was informed that the board of control had issued an order prohibiting the holding of recruiting meetings in the immediate vicinity of the civic pile. Mr. Matheson had been speaking on the James street, and had moved to the front of the building when the recruiters of the 48th Highlanders and 110th Regiment overseas units had finished.
