LEAFS PLAY TWO GAMES AT BUFFALO

Independence Day Across the Line—Coombs Turns in Some Fine Pitching.

This is the national holiday across the line and games will be played morning and afternoon in all cities. The Leafs

Chicago staged a batting bee in the Walter Johnson lost an 11 innings

Old Jack Coombs had the Giants eating out of his hand yesterday. Coombs gave New York three hits, and Brooklyn romped home easy winners. Daues was wild, and this was largely responsible for the Tigers getting beaten at the hands of the Naps.

The Newark Indians continue to lose with regularity. Dunn's Orioles won two games from them yesterday.

The Braves climbed into second place by batting the great Alexander hard and beating the Phillies 5 to 1.

The Athletics have no luck. They drove Shore off the mound, but Boston came along in the ninth with two runs and won.

Ty Cobb, Detroit outfielder, was yesterday suspended for three days and fined $25 by President Johnson of the American League for throwing his bat into an unoccupied section of the grand stand when he was called out on strikes in a game at Chicago Sunday.

The White Sox were handed a game yesterday, Weilman of St. Louis threw a bunt to first when nobody was there to receive the throw and the winning run came in.

Vic Saier is not shaping up this year with anything like his usual speed. He is bad in the fielding end of the games, as well as in his hitting. Tinker will have to look out for a new first-baseman for next year if Vic does not come thruscom.

The New York Yankees are biting solidly into the first position in the American League, and it looks as if it will be a hard job to displace them. Despite a series of mishaps to players, which heavily handicapped Wild Bill's team, the Yanks have always been in the running, and now that the injured men are again Yanks have always been in the running, and now that the injured men are again on the active list, and the pitchers are going well, it will be a hard bunch to stop. Frank Baker has struck his homerun stride again, after having been in a batting slump most of the season, and Fritz Maisel is about ready to get back into the game. The Yanks, having overhauled and thrown down Cleveland, seem to be the most formidable clubs in the league, tho the struggle is at present a tight one among six clubs. There are many who think that Hughey Jennings' Tigers will be strictly in the hunt as the days go by. Detroit, as was the case last year, is weak in the pitching departbut, with Ty Cobb and the other sluggers hitting their natural gait again, the Jennings men are due to knock out a considerable percentage of victories.

Fans who see a team at the top of the race and expect to find the reasons for the lofty position in the work of some great light will be surprised in the case of New York, at present leading the American League. Cleveland's stay at the topmost berth could be attributed to Speaker, Graney and a few other famous performers. Such, however, is not the Speaker, Graney and a few other famous performers. Such, however, is not the case with the Yankees. A somewhat unusual fact is that not one member of the team is batting in the .300's. Pipp, playing first base regularly, sports a batting mark around .265, but he is among the "ten best sluggers." But, what is most significant is that his slugging comes at apportune times.

The Yanks' famous $15,000 beauty, Fritz Maisel, is said to be slated for another berth. Fritz, despite his good baseball qualities, has been forced to play second fiddle since Frank Baker is on the Yankee team. Washington is said to be hot on Fritz's trail, too.

land field ushers that will bear investigation.

In Friday's game Cal accused the ushers of holding up old balls that were hit into the stands when the Reds were at bat. This is done to force the umpire to throw out new balls.

When the Pirates bat. Callahan alleges, the old balls are returned in time to keep them in play. The Pirate leader appealed to Umpire Harrison about the matter and he made sure that Garry Hermann, who was sitting in a box, heard his allegations.

"The game is too big to allow any tactics of this sort," said Callahan in commenting on the matter.

McTigue Bested in Pitchers' Duel by Kirmayer-Truesdale's Blue Monday.

Rochester defeated Toronto in a pitch-

The Leafs picked up seven bingles, scattered thru six innings, two in the opener coming after Truesdale and Smith had fanned. Murray singled thru the box, stole second, but only could make third on Graham's scratch, Murray was caught yards off the plate, on a nice play by Casey and McAuley, on the attempted double-steal, and was out in sliding back to third.

That was the closest our boys came to the home plate yesterday afternoon.

That was the closest our boys came to the home plate yesterday atternoon. Thereafter Kirmayer heaved air-tight ball and had almost perfect control. His only pass was to Smith in the sixth, which Trout opened with a clean single, McTigue sacrificed him down the second attempt, and then Truesdale and Murray struck out. It was Frank's blue Monday at the bat, as he whiffed on three of his four journeys to the plate, and finally raised a short fly to left.

Rochester won out in the aixth, which Kirmayer opened with a grounder to Truesdale. Leach walked, as referred to above; McAuley singled to left, Leach being held at second. Zacher fouled out, and then Jacobson hoisted one over Thompson's head for two bags, and Leach scored, McAuley going only as far as third. Holke's sharp grounder to second closed the round.

McAuley pulled off the best play of the day in the fourth, when he stuck out his gioved hand and scooped up Graham's sizzler back of second, and retired the funner at first, Holke also pulling off a nice one-hand catch on the throw, but sticking to the bag.

Tho Smith had a couple of errors, he looks good at short, and with two more outleders somewhat of the calibre of John (Red) Murray, allowing Thompson to take his turn on the mound, the Leafs should come pretty near landing the flag.

The rew ere very fine finishes and surprises in the match, Lonergan holding Ballantine to S draws, Carl 2 drawn 2 lost. Smith fully expected a walkover in Carl but was glad to break even. Brown, by some very expert finishes, held Atcheson.

Both twirlers were effective, and but for the base on balls that Tommy Leach drew in the sixth, the game would have gone into extra innings. # The Style Ideal of a Young Man As It Is Expressed by Hickey

To our minds, young men prefer styles that, while youthful and vigorous, are nevertheless of unquestionable good taste and sufficient dignity.

Hickey clothes for young men are accordingly unusual without being extreme—there's good taste in their style, weave, coloring, pattern—but breezy just the same.

Our displays of these clothes feature unusual values at every price.

SCOTS IN HEROIC CHARGE. 9500 Lost in Battle of Loos. Says Churchill.

A story of the heroism shown by Scottish and other troops at Loos was told by Winston Churchill in the house of commons. He was referring to the disbanding of four Scottish battalions which had covered themselves with glory at the front, and said:

"The 9th Scottish Division, which played a notable part in the battle of Loos, lost 6000 in killed and wounded out of 9500 infantry. One battalion of Cameron Highlanders went into action 350 strong with 30 officers and the colonel and the Highlanders went into action 350 strong with 30 officers and the colonel and the adjutant and into men alone, who were survivors, took and held their objective. "Four successive lines were swept away; and the fifth went on without hesitation, while two days later the remnant was asked to make an attack, and they did it with the utmost elan and good spirit. "These troops," Mr. Churchill went on. "1200 selected out of a brigade of 4000, swept over the parapets to the attack. You talk about the charge at Belaclava and the Fusiliers at Albuers; even these deeds pale by these new divisions raised in the British army. Needless to say, no account of these achievements, other than a very jejune account published many months afterwards, has reached the public.

"Four battalions of this primary division of Scotland have been disbanded and merged with other battalions, who are also short, and their places have been taken by a South African brigade."

"Joe," said a newly married man to an old friend whom he met at the club, "what did, you call your wife's mother when you were first married? I don't like the idea of calling mine by the endearing name of 'Mother.'"

"Well," said Joe, "it was like this with me: For a while I addressed her as 'say,' but before I was married a year I called her 'Grandma.'"
