The Executive Committee have much pleasure in stating that the Parish of Windsor again takes its place in our list of contributors. The Rector writes:—

"We have had an excellent meeting, at which very good sentiments were expressed toward the Society, and I think in future an increased interest will be felt in the Society's work."

From the Rector at Shelburne:—

"I forward the list of contributors from my mission to D. C. S. for the year 1864, the largest offering for this purpose we have ever made, although far below what it ought to be. Many of the sums from individuals are very small, but in very many instances they were not able to pay even that mite down, but had to sell something to enable them to do so. Many give their hundreds and thousands, but have hundreds and thousands left still, and do not have to deny themselves a single luxury or gratification. Not so with
