

ALGUIRE'S MILK AGITATOR!

Patented April 15, 1868, by STERLING ALGUIRE, Farmersville, Ont.

Recommended by the Canadian Dairyman's Convention, at Ingersoll, 1869 and 1870, and by all who have used it, as a great

Labor Saving Machine

It will STIR EVERY PARTICLE OF MILK IN THE VAT, as often or seldom as you choose, and so gentle that the milk is not injured in the least.

NO CREAM CAN POSSIBLY ARISE,
And Five Barrels of Water will run three Vats all Night.

It is Manufactured by A. Oliver & Co., Ingersoll,
Price $12.50, per Vat, Right Included.

REFERENCE is respectfully given to the Hon. David Reesor, Markham; E. V. Bodwell, M.P., Mount Elgin; Ketchum Graham, Esq., M.P.P., Belleville; H. S. Losee, Norwich; Thomas Balantyne, Esq., Stratford; E. Caswell, Ingersoll; B. S. Martin, Dunham Flats, P.Q.; Lyman Buck, East Farnham, P.Q.

J. B. HARRIS, Ingersoll,

Assignee of Patent.

SOMETHING
COL

Jacob T...

The attention of
of the Dairy and Fac facture of Vats and and Canada, for the struction of the Vats
a great amount of tro
years of study and la public a Vat which i

The woodwork o
it is made stronger a

The Boiler, bein
it can be readily pac copper, thereby gene

The Shuts and by heat or cold as ca
so arranged that the

The Distributor
Dairyman can repair expense of conveying

Manu

"DOM

As used by most TOTALS OF

R.

STATION

UNDER

One of the ol

A Large S
COFFINS in th

Call and see t

"An
By