MONCTON MUST OVERCOME TWO GOAL MARGIN

The showdown for the Maritime hockey title is rapidly approaching with the heavy shadow of the Truro Bearcats already apparent. Tonight at Moncton, the New Brunswick title will be decided between Campbellton and Moncton. The latter team has a two-goal lead if they want to get into the semi-finals. Campbellton beat Moncton 4-2 last Monday night. The Atlantic is a powerful outfit on their home ice and their chances of evening up are good.

Amherst has been declared winner of the Central section and will meet Campbellton in the final game of the play-off series to meet the New Brunswick winners. The second game will be played at Charlottetown next week. Truro Bearcats vanquished Sydney Millionaires last night at Truro, 7-1, and they now face Halifax Crescents at Halifax. They are due to play in Halifax tonight, but this date was set before a postponement of last night's game from Moncton night was made owing to a storm. Kenville beat Chester winners of the southern Nova Scotia section, last night 11 to 8 at Bridgewater. Chester were declared champions when Lunenburg refused to carry out instructions of the M. A. H. A.

AMHERST WON

AMHERST, Feb. 23.—The Amherst Ramblers were today decided champions of the central section, and will step into the sectional playoffs on Friday night against the Charlottetown Abegweit. The initial game will be played in Amherst and arrangements are now being made for the reception of a capacity crowd. It is the second consecutive season for Amherst to win the hockey title of the central section, although last year, after defeating Port Elgin, they were ousted by the Summerside team. As a result of their victory in the central section, Amherst will now be pitted against the Campbellton team of the Maritime division, a magnificent trophy donated by R. H. Hickey, of Oxford, for perpetual competition in the central section.

IRVINE IS MATCHED WITH FRENCH BOXER

The meeting of Joe Irvine, local boxer and Charlie (Cannonball) Cote was assured yesterday when articles were signed for a ten round battle to be held next week at the Armories here. Irvine's end of the contract was completed yesterday when he affixed his signature on the dotted line.

It is a foregone conclusion that both Irvine and Cote will make a mighty fight to win, as a bout with George Fifeled, Canadian welterweight king, is to be the reward of the victor. Cote has mingled with all the top-notchers at his weight and has never been felled. His record is an impressive one.

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN J. DUNLOP

NO CANADIAN athlete of modern times has risen to such heights as Charlie Gorman and the banquet tender him by the Pythians last evening was entirely fitting and will do much to help the cause of clean athletics hereabouts. The action of the Pythians in naming a committee to press for the securing of a permanent position for Gorman is one of the finest things they could do and will meet with universal approval. The man in the street honestly feels Gorman deserves something of this sort and the Pythians are moving for something definite are getting out of the ruck that so often marks our appreciation of our athletes. It is all very well to hand him verbal and floral bouquets, pat him on the back and tell him what a fine fellow he is but that is not going to repay him for the chances and opportunity he has missed in securing a livelihood for the years to come. Charlie Gorman won a worthy title but it took long, long years to do it. Gorman found it difficult to get a job during that time and keep it because to skate for his city he needed the entire winter and most of the fall for his campaigns. In that period, he missed many chances. Now, they are going to see he is repaid and the sporting public of the Maritimes are united in saying "Well done. Gorman deserves it all." It is not generally known that this boy was one of the best in his machine on Black's alley last night. He took the Commercial League game on Black's alley last night. Tonight the Nashua team, who were outplayed, played in a defensive manner. The game was a close one, with the Maroons playing in a defensive manner, and the Ottawa team, who were outplayed, played in a defensive manner.
