Commissioner Bullock recently received a communication from the Board of Health complaining that decayed material was being dumped near the mill pond in West St. John. City Engineer Hare investigated and found a large quantity of decayed meat about eight feet from the bank near the corner of Ludlow and Rodney streets. The meat was buried and a sign placed there prohibiting any further dumping.

HANDKERCHIEF SHOWER.
A very pleasant surprise was given to Mrs. W. E. Hamon of Pleasant Point on Monday evening, when the Golden Rule Class met at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Arbo, and tendered her a handkerchief shower in honor of her birthday. Mrs. Hamon has been ill for several months, and friends who also gave her a handkerchief shower through the mail will be glad to hear that she is greatly improved.

PROBABLY ALL RIGHT
Judging from reports from the General Public Hospital this morning as to the condition of Leslie Gordon Stevens, the little boy who fell from an upper window of the Children's Aid Home, he is little if any the worse for his experience. He was able to sit up in bed this morning and eat breakfast. He appeared quite bright and talked to the nurses as though nothing had happened.

The bride is a graduate of the General Public Hospital. Many beautiful presents were received, among them being a chest of silver from J. M. Dimock & Co. and staff, and the groom is employed. ARE RE-UNITED AFTER 20 YEARS

The Times Again Proves the Happy Medium of Bringing Relatives Together.

After being separated for more than twenty years, two sisters enjoyed a happy reunion yesterday through the agency of the Times. It is chronicled in this paper last evening that Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McLeod, of Stoneham, Mass., formerly of Penobscot, were visiting in the city, the guests of Mr. McLeod's sister, Mrs. N. M. Campbell, 285 Charlotte street. While here Mrs. McLeod had been making endeavors to locate her sister of whom she had lost track. It was thought possible that she might have been in St. George. All efforts were fruitless, until Mrs. McLeod was advised to try the Times. Less than two hours after the paper appeared last night, the two sisters were in each other's arms. Mrs. McLeod's sister is now Mrs. Matilda Gallant, of St. Patrick street. Her husband is dead. Needless to say, a very happy evening was spent last night by the re-united sisters, and both feel very grateful to the Times for the help which it was able to give.

WHAT THE HEALTH CENTRE WILL DO

Means Much for Good of City and Province

Drive of August 15 Should be Great Success—Final Arrangements for Tag Day Being Completed—Some of the Workers.

A movement has been started in Saint John to have a health centre for the people of Saint John and vicinity. Several suitable buildings are under consideration at present, and the centre will house under one roof all agencies working for better health conditions in this city as—

Tuberculosis Dispensary; V. O. N. day quarters and infant welfare clinics; sub-district board of health of Saint John city and county; free dental clinics for children; school medical inspector's office and clinics; eye refraction clinic; pre-school age clinic, (for well children 2-4 years old, for physical examinations in order to correct early defects); posture clinic and nutritional clinic, through which it is hoped to develop open air classes and schools for those children and later on summer homes; mental hygiene clinic; social hygiene clinic and director public health nursing service of New Brunswick.

It is also hoped to establish here a school for the training of public health nurses for service in the Province of New Brunswick, also to establish here a summer school for the partial training of the rural woman in bedside care as "trained attendant" thereby giving to the rural areas a very valuable nursing service and one which will be within their means.

The new building will be used as a demonstration centre in public health both in Saint John and the entire province and the greater the success of the drive of August 15, the greater will be the immediate effectiveness of the centre.

The infant mortality during 1921 in Saint John was 187 per 1000 births i. e. (187 children out of every 1000 born died before reaching one year of age). In the Province of New Brunswick the number was 198 per 1000 births and, excepting Quebec province, New Brunswick had by far the highest death rate of infants in Canada. Three quarters of the rate is unnecessary and unnecessary to intensive public health civilization, and our infant mortality is the criterion of our civilization. It is better and cheaper to save and to keep in good health our own Canadian babies and children than to bring in immigrants and hope to make good Canadians of them. Canada loses 25,000 infants every year, and eighty per cent. of all infants are born fit, that is free from disease.

New Zealand has reduced their infant mortality to forty per 1000. The final arrangements for the coming tag day are being completed by the local health authorities, under the direction of Miss Jessie Meldejohn. The various districts have all been divided among the workers and a convenor has been appointed to see that every person directly to intensive public health civilization, and our infant mortality is the criterion of our civilization.

The wards and districts and the convenors appointed for them are as follows:—Guys and Brooks, Mrs. E. A. Young; Lorne, Mrs. J. A. Mowry; Lunenburg, Mrs. D. Miller; Stanley and Millidgeville, Mrs. J. Fraser Gregory; Dufferin, still undecided; Kings, Daughters of Israel, Mrs. L. Leases; Queens, Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson; Dukes, Catholic Women's League, Mrs. Richard O'Brien; Sydney, Mrs. F. E. Holman; Victoria, Salvation Army; Wellington, Pythian Sisters, Mrs. G. C. Amland; Prince, ladies of the Orange Lodge, Mrs. Kerr; East St. John, Mrs. Arthur Burditt; Fairville, Coldbrook and Brookville, Mrs. G. F. Cuthbertson; Kingston, Mrs. Carter; Hampton, Queens and Nauviggauk, to be taken by ladies from this city; Torburn, Mrs. Eustace Barnes; St. Martins, Mrs. Bentley; Renforth, Miss Pearl Clerk; Fair Vale, Mrs. George Bishop; Red Head, Mrs. F. E. Holman; Robbsey, Kinghurst and Riverside, Mrs. H. McIntyre; Loch Lomond, Mrs. L. Harris; Ketepec and Martinon, Mrs. James Evans; Acamag, Mrs. S. E. Elkin; Grand Bay, Mrs. T. H. Somers; Pundance, Mrs. Ralph Fales; Ingleside, Mrs. R. Arscott; Onnetette, Mrs. W. E. Golding; Hillside, Mrs. E. R. Machum; Westfield and Woodman's Point, Mrs. Fielding Rankine; Lingley, Miss Peters; Sagwa, Mrs. Brittain.

THEIR CARDS ARE ON THE TABLE
The Hardware Clerks Association Can See No Cause for Secrecy.
Roy A. Willet, president of the Hardware Clerks' Association, said that this morning there had come to his ears one or two reports that a certain organization resented the action of the hardware clerks in reporting their meeting to the press before the meeting of the executive of the United Organizations. Mr. Willet added that so far as the Hardware Clerks' Association was concerned they were working with the cards on the table, and the public knew just where they stood. Their association had no axe to grind, and neither looked for nor expected any favors from anyone, but was working entirely in the interests of the citizens of St. John; and, considering the number of communications that had been received from approving taxpayers, urging the hardware clerks to keep up the fight, it was felt they were on the right track. "We shall give the press a full report of our actions at all times," said Mr. Willet, "and we are now lining up for a big campaign, if necessary, in order that the wishes expressed by the voters in April last shall be carried out."
