A feature of the ceremony was the presentation to Sir George E. Foster of a silver trowel bearing the inscription, "Presented to Sir George E. Foster, B. A., LL. D., D. C. L., on the laying of the corner stone of the Victoria street Baptist church, Oct. 2, 1920."

More than forty years ago some families who had been connected with the Free Baptist Church in Waterloo street removed to the North End, and, with others, began to hold services in a hall in Metcalfe street. On Nov. 21, 1878, they organized themselves as a church. The first pastor was Rev. T. W. Clarke, and the first officers were L. Dunphy, William Whittaker and William Humphries, deacons; William Humphries, treasurer; George Black, clerk; and James Brown and L. B. Ward, helps. The pastor's salary was only $400 a year.

On Nov. 26, or within a week of the organization, a committee was formed to proceed at once to build a meeting house, 38 by 70 feet, without a tower. That is the church in use until the present time.

The various pastors of the church have been as follows: Rev. T. W. Clarke, 1878-82; Rev. W. G. Halse, 1882-87; Rev. G. R. Reud, for nine months, when he died: Rev B. H. Nobles, July 12, 1888
