NOT FOR NEW SETTLERS ONLY BUT FOR PEOPLE OF THE PROVINCE, TOO

A Wrong Idea About Application of the Farm Settlement Act

It is only recently that the farming population of the province has begun to realize that the provisions of the farm settlement act are intended primarily for their benefit. Since the act was put in operation there was an idea among the native farmers that the opportunities for purchasing farms on easy terms were limited to new settlers, and, as a result, nearly all the transfers made by the board in the past have been to newcomers who were quick to take advantage of the privilege.

As a result of missionary work on the part of members of the board this erroneous idea is being dissipated and the residents of the province are beginning to take a deeper and more practical interest in the workings of the act.

Recently several additional applications have been received from various parts of New Brunswick, and the members of the board are giving them their attention. While the board welcomes the application of the new settlers they are anxious to see more New Brunswickers take up farms in their own province. One of the greatest handicaps New Brunswick has suffered has been the loss of many of the most enterprising young men, who have left to seek their fortunes in the west. Investigation of conditions shows that the average young man has at least as good opportunities right here and this is the doctrine the farm settlement board is teaching.

The prospect of cheap land was one of the greatest attractions of the west in other years, but now that the best of the government land has been taken up this is not so great an inducement and on the other hand the new farm act gives almost any enterprising man an opportunity to own his own farm in New Brunswick.

Among the reasons why the board welcomes the application of natives of the province is the fact that the farmer who has received his training here is already familiar with local conditions and can be depended upon to succeed more rapidly than one who has to familiarize himself with new features of farming.

With the steadily increasing prices paid for farm products and an increase, also, in the quantities used, which is being met by the importation of produce from other provinces and from across the border, farm lands in New Brunswick are gaining in value and there is reason to expect that the area under cultivation will increase rapidly within the next few years.

MR. KELTY OF OPERA HOUSE RESIGNS TO GO TO NEW YORK

Many friends have heard, with regret, of the projected departure of Mr. Kelty and his wife from the city. Although they have not been long in St. John, they have made a great number of friends, by whom they were held in high esteem. Mr. Kelty, as manager of the Opera House, has been brought in contact with the majority of local theatre-goers and they have always found him courteous and obliging, and endeavoring to do his utmost for the furtherance of their comfort, and the interest and advancement of local theatricals.

Mr. Kelty tendered his resignation to take effect about the last of the month, and will leave for New York, where he has accepted a position with the Boston Opera Company. Though they regret his going, his friends here will wish him all success in his new position.

MRS. CHAS. McALLISTER OF SUSSEX DEAD; AGED 73

The death of Mrs. Charles McAllister, of Sussex, aged 73 years, occurred yesterday. She was stricken with illness on Thursday and lingered unconscious until the next day at 10 o'clock. She was the widow of Charles McAllister, Cal.; Mary McAllister, nurse in St. John, and Mrs. J. D. Patton at home. She was a consistent member of the Main street U. B. church of Sussex, and will be mourned by many friends. The funeral will take place on Sunday, the 14th, at 2.30 p.m., interment in Kirk Hill cemetery, Sussex.

POLICE COURT

The presence of Ada Diamond a colored woman, before him in the police court called forth some remarks this morning from Judge Ritchie, regarding what he called "changed conditions in St. John with cases of married women being in company with other women's husbands." He said there was too much of it going on. The woman was arrested last night about ten o'clock in King square by Policeman Howard on a charge of drunkenness. The policeman said this morning that she had been with another colored man, not her husband, and had been interfering with people passing, besides attracting much attention. She had not been dealt with at time of going to press.

One man charged with drunkenness was remanded, and another fined $8 or two months in jail.
