LOCAL NEWS

A SHOWER.
A delightful time was spent last evening at the home of the Misses Goggin in White street, when some fifty friends assembled and gave a linen shower in honor of Miss Celia Donovan, who is to be a principal in a happy event next week.

NOVELTY SHOWER.
Lady friends of Miss Nellie Duffy called at her home 9 Chealey street last evening and tendered her a novelty shower in anticipation of her happy event which is to take place in the near future. She received many presents which will be of use to her in her married life.

STRUCK BY TEAM.
Last evening about tea time in Main street, opposite Albert, a heavy delivery sloop was proceeding along past a few youngsters who were playing about the spot, when one of them, a little fellow named Douglas Days, was struck and knocked down. He was slightly bruised but fortunately received only a glancing blow.

I. C. R. INSPECTION.
F. P. Brady, J. T. Caron and J. T. Hallisey of the I. C. R. management are in the city today on an inspection trip, looking over the property here in anticipation of the winter work which is expected to be very heavy this season. They went to Coldbrook this morning in company with L. R. Ross, terminal agent, and inspected the site for the new sidings and other facilities there.

DRIVE TO LORNEVILLE.
A pleasant outing will be held this evening when some twenty five young ladies and gentlemen, members of the W. H. Thorne & Co. staff will give a drive to Lorneville in honor of Miss Jennie Ritchie, a former member of the staff but now a resident of Winnipeg. She is at present in St. John on a visit. At Lorneville the evening will be spent at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Malcolm.

ABOUT THE GAMES.
A letter received today by a friend in north end from Fred McGovert, the popular catcher for the Marathons, gave a few points to those planning on going to Boston to take in the "big games" of the world's series. "Mac" said that local fans who are going from here might get a reservation of one seat if they wrote to the league office and asked for a check against them to it, provided they followed their request with the cash required for the privilege. It was possible to secure only one seat as the management wished to give all who desired a chance to get a reserved space. The letter stated that the writer thought there would be a great many standing in line all night before the games opened to get in on the rush seats.

POLICE ON GUARD OVER HORSE FOR HALIFAX MEET.

Races Ending Today Have Been Marked by Much of the Sensational

Halifax, Sept. 19.—The exhibition race meeting will close today with the 2:22 trot and pace and the free-for-all trot, with Baring and Billy C. ruling respective favorites.

It has been a most sensational meeting, one that will go down in the track history. The death of Allie W., the suspension of Rockford, minor accidents recorded by Billy C., and the two year old record by Baring's Comet, the dethroning of Draven, Cheverie of Kremut, and Jack Leonard's putting him in line for first money, demands for identification of horses, etc., all contribute to stamp this meeting as the most sensational the provinces ever knew. Kremut was taken from his owner and driver and guarded by the police last night. He finished sixth in 2:27 1/4 in the first heat, and in the second heat he was an outside position a winner in 2:24 1/2.

FATHER OF HECTOR MCGINNES FALLS OVER WHARF TO DEATH.

Mistake Way on Leaving Train in Dark—Rescued, But Dies of Shock

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 19.—Lanchlan McGinnes of Scotch Hill, four miles from Pictou, father of Hector McGinnes, K. C. bar, of Halifax, died at four o'clock this morning as the result of falling over the wharf at Pictou last night.

Mr. McGinnes arrived at Pictou in a late train after a visit to his son here. Instead of going up town from the station he walked down the wharf and overboard into the harbor. The crew of the steamer Lady Shill heard his cries as he struggled and rescued him. He was taken to a hospital, where he died from shock.

Mr. McGinnes was eighty-five years of age. His son Peter was at the station to meet him but did not see him leave the train.

PAY $50 OR GO TO JAIL FOR THIRTY DAYS

That is Harry Duke's Choice For Buying Liquor for Indian

Three prisoners were arraigned in the police court this morning. One charged with drunkenness was fined $5 or thirty days in jail, and one other got off with a fine of $2. Daniel Brien, charged with lying and lurking in a C. P. R. box car off Mill street last night was remanded to jail.

Harry Duke of Fairville, who was arrested yesterday morning on charge of supplying liquor to an Indian, was also brought in this morning and was fined $50 or thirty days in jail. His Honor told him that under the Dominion Act he could fine him $50, but that he would let him off easy this time. Duke met the Indian in Main street yesterday morning and asked him if he wanted to buy some liquor. The Indian gave him an $1 bill to buy the liquor, which it was said cost fifty cents. Duke bought the liquor and gave the Indian forty cents change. He was arrested by Sergeant Kilpatrick in Elm street.

COUPLE OF BIG DEALS IN CITY REAL ESTATE

DOCK STREET TRANSFER
Ferguson Property Sold — Lot in Germain Street Added to Pugley Holdings—Rumor of Exchange of Sites For Hotel and Garage

The construction of the new million dollar hotel in this city, which was promoted by T. L. Moring, of Montreal, is now assured. According to an announcement made today the required capital has been secured and the company is prepared to commence operations this fall. The hotel is to be on a larger and handsomer scale than this city has known, and its erection will add one of the finest to the number of large buildings in St. John.

J. A. Pugley & Co. have now secured the complete block in Germain street between Princess and Horsfield streets. First they acquired the Sears lot on the corner of Germain and Prince, and then, as announced in the Times last week, purchased from G. W. Wilby the adjoining property with a frontage of forty feet in Germain street. The latest addition is property adjoining this and situated on the corner of Germain and Horsfield streets. The land was purchased from J. G. Willet, who took it under an option which he has had for some months, and the buildings were bought from W. Tremblay.

Owing to Mr. Pugley's absence from the city it was impossible to learn definitely what discussion he intends to make of the new purchase and whether the plans for the garage are to be extended to take in the whole block. There was an interesting story current around the streets, however, regarding the deal. It was said that arrangements had been made between the promoters of the big new hotel and Messrs. Pugley for an exchange of properties that would permit of the new hotel being built in Germain street while the garage would be erected on the Prince William street site opposite the Customs House.

Another real estate deal, which will rank among the largest transfers of city property, was completed today. This transfer involves the block in Dock street, including half a dozen properties, which was purchased by T. M. Nagle from the Ferguson estate last month ago. Mr. Nagle has now sold the property to E. Roger Owen, an insurance manager of England, and the deal was completed today. The price paid for the property by Mr. Nagle was about $75,000, and it is understood that the Ferguson estate was valued at between $80,000 and $100,000.

Several other important real estate deals are in progress here, and announcements concerning them may be made in a few days.

LAY REV. MR. MCKIEL AT REST IN CEMETERY OF CHURCH HE SERVED

Impressive Services in Church of Good Shepherd at Funeral of Anglican Clergyman

The funeral of Rev. LeBaron W. McKiel took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late home in Fairville, N. B., by Rev. Walter F. Dunham, assisted by Rev. G. F. Scovil, and the rector of the church, Rev. Walter F. Dunham. After the service the body was laid in state in the church, and several of the local clergymen and a number of students kept watch until the time of service, half-past two o'clock this afternoon.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. F. Scovil, assisted by Rev. Dr. Street, Rev. W. O. Raymond and Rev. Walter F. Dunham. The choir of the church sang several hymns, including, On the Resurrection Morn, Peace, Perfect Peace, and Now the Laborer's Task is O'er. Rev. Dr. Street gave a short address, in which he briefly reviewed the career of the deceased and spoke of the great loss the church had sustained through his death.

Interment was made in the Church of the Good Shepherd cemetery on the Manswoggin Road. The funeral was attended by many citizens. The pall-bearers were Cecil, Medley and Rudolf, sons of the deceased; Edward McKiel, a brother; Hiram Zicker, a grandson, and Dr. Morehouse, a son-in-law.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Perry took place yesterday morning at 7:30 o'clock from her late home in Main street, Fairville. The body was taken to St. Rose's church, where requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. C. Collins. Interment was in the Sand Cove cemetery. The six sons of the deceased acted as pall-bearers.

The funeral of William Palmer took place yesterday afternoon from his late home in Kingsville. Funeral services were conducted in St. Rose's church by Rev. C. Collins, and interment was in the Sand Cove cemetery.

The funeral of Andrew J. O'Leary took place this morning from his late home in St. James street. Requiem high mass was celebrated in St. John the Baptist church by Rev. W. F. Chapman, V. G., and interment was in the old Catholic cemetery. Relatives acted as pall-bearers.

IN DANGEROUS PLACE.
Possessed with the spirit of recklessness through inhibiting his freely last evening, Thomas Connell of North End, chose rather precarious position in which to sleep. He was seen about the city yesterday afternoon and when he was found last night at Fairville, lying on the tender of the engine attached to the incoming Boston train, there was much surprise and wonderment as to how he had got there. His ride proved a costly one, despite the fact that he had purchased no ticket, for he was placed under arrest by Policeman Stinson, and this morning Justice Allingham informed him that his fare would be $4 cash, without a rebate or return.
