I tell you the day is coming (and it is not more marvelous to predict it than the predictions made about the C, P. R. and its construction) when perhaps the port of St John will play a more prominent part in this trade than any living man would now think of. This port may be in the route from South America and the West Indies to Hong Kong. Formerly the British Empire was divided, but the Canadian Pacific has made the connecting link. This trade which we are seeking to increase is a trade between our own people. The sea, every one knows, is the dominion of Great Britain and her colonies are planted everywhere in the richest parts of the earth. Whatever interchange, or expansion or creation of trade is made between any of these colonies and Canada all the profit and advantage of that traffic is in the one family, and all under the one flag. It is the pride of the subjects of Great Britain, the ensign of progress, the peaceful yet most glorious progress of commerce.  This exhibition was got up by the government of Jamacia in a noble spirit, not to seek the development of the fresources of their own island, but to seek the development of the island, who are perhaps behind in the march of progress of the world. If we in Canada, can do anything to inspire with fresh energy our people in Jamaica and set them an example by the interest we take in this exhibition, it should be done. I hope we may be able to show them that if they will take a leaf out of the book of this country and have their commerce conducted in a modern slyle of business that much good will be the result. Drivers who are afraid of being swamped now use the sidewalk.  The Kingsville Cornet Band played a good programme at Indiantown last evening.  Shorter Show.—It has been decided to close the part of the exhibition at Moosepath on the last day of September instead of October 3rd.  Streamer David Weston will leave Indiantown to-morrow (Saturday) evening at 6 o'clock for Hampstead, etc., returning on Monday morning at 8.30.  Into the slip.—The railing at the head of York point slip gave way when James Lockhart of Fort Howe leaned against it and he fell into the slip. He had to be taken home in a coach.  Court la Tour I. O. F.—Members of this court are asked not to forget the special meeting to night at eight o'clock, and to give a full attendance as there will be some of the High Court officers present.  Special Notice.—On account of slight repairs to the steamer State of Maine, to-morrow's Saturday night trip will be made to Portland direct, where passengers will be transferred by rail to Boston without extra cost. No freight will be received for this trip.  Professor G. N. Masse and Mrs. Masse will present some interesting facts in connection with the Grande Ligne mission of Quebec, to the Woman's Mission Aid Society of Leinster street church this evening at 8 p. m. All interested in this mission are invited to be present.  Reopening Services.—The Baptist Mission Hall, Haymarket square, having for some time past been closed for repairs will be reopened next Lord's day 31st. inst. with special services morning and evening. The building has been remodled, painted and grained, and presence. Special collections will be taken on Sunday to defray expenses.	tempt to enlarge this trade. I tell you the day is coming (and it is not more marvelous to predict it than the predictions made about the C, P. R. and its construction) when perhaps the port of St John will play a more prominent part in this trade than any living man would now think of. This port may be in the route from South America and the West Indies to Hong Kong. Formerly the British Empire was divided, but the Canadian Pacific has made the connecting link. This trade which we are seeking to increase is a trade between our own people. The sea, every one knows, is the dominion of Great Britain and her colonies are planted everywhere in the richest parts of the earth. Whatever interchange, or expansion or creation of trade is made between any of these colonies and Canada all the profit and advantage of that traffic is in the one family, and all under the one flag. It is the pride of the subjects of Great Britain, the ensign of progress, the peaceful yet most glorious progress of commerce.  This exhibition was got up by the government of Jamacia in a noble spirit, not to seek the development of the "resources of their own island, but to seek to educate the people of that island, who are perhaps behind in the march of progress of the world. If we in Canada, can do anything to inspire with fresh energy our people in Jamaica and set them an example by the interest we take in this exhibition, it should be done. I hope we may be able to show them that if they will take a leaf out of the book of this country and have their commerce conducted in a modern style of business that much good will be the result. I tell you the day is coming (and it is not more marvelous to predict it than the predictions made about the C, P. R. and its construction) when perhaps the port of St John will play a more prominent part in this trade than any living man would now think of. This port may be in the route from South America and the West Indies to Hong Kong. Formerly the British Empire was divided, but the Canadian Pacific has made the connecting link. This trade which we are seeking to increase is a trade between our own people. The sea, every one knows, is the dominion of Great Britain and her colonies are planted everywhere in the richest parts of the earth. Whatever interchange, or expansion or creation of trade is made between any of these colonies and Canada all the profit and advantage of that traffic is in the one family, and all under the one flag. It is the pride of the subjects of Great Britain, the ensign of porgress, the peaceful yet most glorious progress of commerce.  This exhibition was got up by the government of Jamacia in a noble spirit, not to seek the development of the resources of their own island, but to seek to educate the people of that island, who are perhaps behind in the march of progress of the world. If we in Canada, can do anything to inspire with fresh energy our people in Jamaica and set them an example by the interest we take in this connection in the establishment of branches of the Bank of Nova Scotia in some of the inlands.  "I want to see the trade by the steamers from this port and from Halifax a success, and it is going to be a success. Let every man be up and doing whatever he can to help it along, and we will make the exhibition of Canada such as will rebound to Canada's credit and good hereafter. Let every one from the largest miller down to the manufacturer of the smallest articles do their duty and I have not the least! doubt whatever that a result satisfactory to everybody in Canada will be achieved."  Mr. Howo was applauded heartily.  Mr. George Robertso	rooklyn	Cotton Hose. Those who have been waiting for them can now procure all sizes and several prices as last lot.
