SUMMER MONTHS FATAL TO SMALL CHILDREN

Every mother must know how fatal the summer months are to small children. Cholera infantum, diarrhoea, dysentery and stomach troubles are all common at this time and many a precious life is snuffed out after only a few hours' illness. As a safeguard mothers should keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent stomach and bowel troubles, or if the trouble comes on suddenly, will bring the little one through safely. Mrs. R. E. Sanford, Inverary, Ont., writes:— "My baby was sickly for over a week with stomach and bowel troubles and cried night and day. Nothing helped her till I began giving her Baby's Own Tablets, but they helped her right away and now she is a big healthy child with fine, rosy cheeks. The Tablets are certainly a wonderful medicine and I recommend them to all my friends who have little children." Sold by medicine vendors or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

HE OVERDOES IT

Sir Wilfrid Has to Rebuke Arrogant Grain-Grower.

BIG MEETING AT SASKATOON

Premier's Triumphal Journey of the West Continues—Saskatoon Turns Out in Force to Welcome Him—Representative of the Farmers Demands Free Trade But Sir Wilfrid Laurier Says "No."

Saskatoon, Sask., July 30.—The grain-growers of this district overstepped the work of their conference with Sir Wilfrid Laurier yesterday, and gave a sharp rebuke to the Premier. John Evans, president of the association, a self-declared Liberal of the Gladstone type, but also an unsuccessful candidate for the Conservative nomination, allowed his tongue to run away with his discretion. From their attitude lately the grain-growers, who have adopted an organized campaign, apparently assume that the members of the Government will stand for any kind of talk.

Mr. Evans started out by defining protection as "organized robbery" and as the mother of trusts, as you, Sir Wilfrid, said sixteen years ago.

In connection with the iron and steel bonanza he spoke of "that much room aristocracy, monsters of graft, that has been swollen since 1896, or since you came into power," and said the Liberal Government has departed from all principles. He also said that to-day is the most conservative government on the face of the civilized world. You said you would skin the bear of protection, but we would like to know what you have done with the hide.

E. M. Macdonald, M.P. of Picton, here interrupted with "You are making a line, he claimed. They would admit that no one else on board suspects the identity of the pair. Crippen is shaved, with moustache and false hair. He is not a man of the type there is no doubt as to his identity. He got suspicious a few hours after he had been at sea and watched closely since he came on the boat and is sure every day that he is Crippen. He had read of the case on his former voyage, and when he was in England he saw pictures of both of the fugitives in the London papers and when in Antwerp. He did not send his message till he had closely watched the man and was sure that he was the man wanted."

W. Rowlands of Aberdeen, a former American, advocated Government ownership. If the railway company had a line, he claimed, they would route freight over long lines to the east in order to earn higher freight. The Premier, after saying good-humoredly that there were "more Tory politics than grain-growing in one of the speeches," went on to answer Evans' charges. He denied that he had preached free trade. He had preached only "free trade." He said it would be impossible to raise revenue by direct taxation in Canada. Conservatives, not Liberals, had introduced protection, and Liberals had reduced it.

"We have reduced taxation and, as I hope, we shall reduce it again," he declared. "It is not fair to say that we have been an easy mark. Steel bounties were introduced by the Conservatives. If any one has been an easy mark, it is not the Laurier Government."

He admitted that he had not given tariff reduction as fast as the producers of the west would desire. It is not our policy to tinker with the tariff. We revised the tariff in 1897, and again in 1907. When time comes for a new revision, it will be my aim to meet the wishes of producers in this and all parts of the country."

Hon. G. P. Graham, in reply to Mr. Rowlands, said that the farmer would have control of the route by which he would ship. Yesterday afternoon Sir Wilfrid laid the cornerstone of the first building of Saskatchewan University. Notwithstanding the apparently hostile attitude of the grain growers earlier in the day, which was later repudiated by influential members of the deputation, there was no lack of cordiality in the reception given Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the members of his party at a big meeting in the hall at night.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Bodies of three men found on the line of the National Transcontinental 90 miles from La Tuque, show evidences of having been robbed.

Myrtle Elliott, who on Monday strayed from her home in Belleville, was found about four miles away. The child had spent most of the 48 hours in the woods.

DEW HAS ARRIVED

Scotland Yard Man at Father Point Awaiting Montrose.

CAPTAIN MORE CONFIDENT

Kendall of the Montrose by Wireless Says That He Is More Firmly Convinced Every Day of the Identity of the Pair of Suspects—Half a Hundred Newspapers Are Waiting For Boat's Arrival.

Father Point, July 30.—An important development in the Crippen case yesterday afternoon was the arrival of Chief Inspector Dew of Scotland Yard, who, following up the clue furnished from the steamer Montrose, sailing from Antwerp to Montreal, left Liverpool last Saturday on the White Star liner Laurentie in order to intercept the suspected passenger and his boy companion were Dr. Crippen and the Leneve woman.

The Laurentie arrived at this place shortly after three o'clock, and Inspector Dew came ashore on the Government tender to await the arrival of the Montrose, which is due here during Sunday afternoon.

In an interview, the inspector said that he had come here to carry out instructions. He, of course, declined to make any statement respecting the case, and professed that he had not received any information as to whether the individual he came to see had been identified as Dr. Crippen or not. He knew the man personally, and was certain he would recognize Crippen if he really was on the Montrose. He is stopping at a private boarder house, along with the provincial police officers, who have come armed with the necessary warrant to arrest the suspected parties.

Besides being extremely reticent, Inspector Dew was visibly annoyed when having to face the cameras of the pressmen, who were endeavoring to remain as much as possible in unobtrusive positions. Directly the Montrose reaches Father Point Sunday, Inspector Dew and the two local officers will board the vessel, and the inspector desires to do this very quietly in order to guard against suicide.

If the identity is established, Dr. Crippen and his companion will be immediately placed under arrest by the Canadian police. They will be landed at Quebec and held there until the arrival of the first steamer from Montreal. They will then be handed over to Inspector Dew, who will take them on the steamer, which will probably be the Royal George, sailing for England next Thursday.

Meanwhile the only authority for the presence of Dr. Crippen and his disguised girl companion is Capt. Kendall of the Montrose, and his own wireless messages to the authorities admit that no one else on board suspects the identity of the pair. Crippen is shaved, with moustache and false hair. He is not a man of the type there is no doubt as to his identity. He got suspicious a few hours after he had been at sea and watched closely since he came on the boat and is sure every day that he is Crippen. He had read of the case on his former voyage, and when he was in England he saw pictures of both of the fugitives in the London papers and when in Antwerp. Baldheads Will be Scarce When Parisian Sage is Better Known

It Keeps Women's Hair Soft and Glossy Says Elizabeth House.

No man likes to look older than he is. Every woman on earth absolutely abhors such a condition.

You may be 30 in years, but if you are bald-headed or grey, people will surely take you to be many years older, and you will be helpless to prevent it.

Dandruff is the root of all hair evils. If it were not for the little dandruff, we would be working with a persistence worthy of a better cause, there would be no baldness.

BIG CONFERENCE COMING

Brotherhood Leaders Leave Toronto for Montreal and a Parley Seems to Be on Their Program—Company's Head Tells Mayor Geary of Toronto That He Will Do His Best to Secure Settlement.

Toronto, July 30.—While there was nothing to be learned that was in any way definite, a strong peace atmosphere seemed prevalent in the G.T.R. strike headquarters, both in Toronto and Montreal yesterday.

At Montreal Hon. W. L. M. King, Minister of Labor was in conference with Vice-President Murdock of the B. R. T., at the Windsor Hotel, where he had also previously conferred with Sir Fred. Borden, Minister of Militia. Thursday night the Labor Minister was in conference with Messrs. Hays and Pittburgh.

Locally, the chief development was the departure for Montreal to meet Mr. King of the heads of the Order of Railway Conductors, and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. At the same time, there is still unexplained the reason for the coming here of the chiefs of the two powerful allied organizations, the firemen and the engineers.

A message last night to Mayor Geary from President Hays is also in a more pacific strain than the remarks attributed to the G.T.R. president the day before. It reads: "Message received. Concur with you in wishing early settlement of existing difficulty, and everything possible will be done to bring about such result."

"In the meantime, combined effort will be made to give you service desired."

Vice-President James Murdock of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, in his reply early in the day, said: "We haden to assure you that we second your motion that nothing should be left undone to bring about a settlement. We are ready now, as we have been, to renew negotiations looking to settlement, and we trust that the other principal in the controversy may accept the same view."

It, however, the Grand Trunk Co. declines to accept an equitable and unexpended settlement of the questions in dispute, we trust that the public and the business interests of this country will think of and deal kindly with the contention of the Grand Trunk trainmen, who are only asking for the wages and conditions that have been conceded the men on more than fifty other railroads in the past few months without the necessity of a strike."

"We are leaving to-night by the C.P.R. at 10.15 for Montreal," said President Garretson of the O.R.C., speaking for himself and President Lee. "We will be accompanied by Vice-President S. N. Berry of Toronto. "I am not prepared to say anything about our mission to Montreal," proceeded Mr. Garretson, but he left it to be inferred that he expected a decided change one way or another in the situation.

And while they would not be drawn out as regards what he thought of the future, a despatch from Cleveland, Ohio, said:

"President W. G. Lee of the B.R.T., telegraphed officials of the brotherhood at the national headquarters here yesterday, that he expects important developments in the Grand Trunk Railway strike situation in the next forty-eight hours. He is still in Toronto. "It is rumored at headquarters that the switchmen at Chicago may go out this move, it is said, would tie up the Grand Trunk's terminal business in Illinois."

Meanwhile, yesterday's freight movement report on the G.T.R. last night by Supt. W. H. Farrell was the best yet. In all 17 trains were said to have moved in and out of Toronto, and according to Mr. Farrell, six trains were scheduled to leave Toronto today for different points.

Vice-President Berry, major-general of the local strikers, had reports yesterday from along the line at various points, showing that strike-breakers in large numbers were being persuaded out of the company's service in sympathy with the men. In Port Huron, hair restorer, will keep you looking young and attractive. It is guaranteed by J. E. Gayler to make hair grow, and stop falling hair, to cure dandruff in two weeks; to stop itching of the scalp almost instantly.

Parisian Sage is the most invigorating, satisfying and pleasant hair dressing made; it makes the hair soft, luxuriant and handsome; it is especially praised by women who have beautiful hair. Parisian Sage is for sale by J. E. Gayler at 50 cents a large bottle, or charges prepaid, from the Canadian makers, Groux, M.G., Co., Fort Erie, Ont. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle.

"I have only used one bottle of Parisian Sage, and of course, I can not praise it as much as I had used more, but I find it a good tonic for the hair."

"It keeps the hair soft and glossy, the scalp clean, and the hair grows long, and stops falling hair. I recommend it to any one as a good tonic."—Elizabeth House, Manchester Conn.

Mich., he reports that thirty strike-breakers left the company's service to participate in breaking a street railway strike in Columbus, Ohio, because the Grand Trunk were "too cheap and did not pay enough."

"Professional strike-breakers," commented Mr. Berry, "and these are a sample of the men that the company are inducing to take the positions of honorable citizens."

SUFFERED THREE YEARS

Till Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cured his Kidney Trouble

There are few diseases that cause more acute suffering than Kidney Trouble, and Mr. F. A. Thomas, of Sudbury Ont., is one of those who know it. He writes:

"For over three years I suffered from kidney disease. First I thought I had sprained my back, for suddenly the pain would catch the small of my back and it would be impossible for me to straighten myself up for several minutes. A dull ache across the kidneys was always present, my urine was thick and cloudy, and passing it caused a burning, scalding pain. Tried medicines, but they failed. I was advised to try Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, which they cured my kidney trouble. A few boxes affected a complete cure. I now enjoy the blessings of good health, which is due to this remedy."

"Don't neglect kidney trouble—it's too dangerous as well as too painful. That reliable family remedy, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, has cured thousands and will cure you. It is equally effective in curing constipation and its attendant evils, biliousness, indigestion and headache, and in purging the blood. 25c a box at your druggist's."
