

WYETH'S CRYSTALLIZED LINIMENT.

For the cure and speedy relief of Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Colic, Sick Stomach, Dysmenorrhœa, Kidney Affections, Weak and Tender Spine, Inflamed Joints, and all Affections of the Nerves and Muscles where Mustard, Capsine, Porous and other Plasters, Liniments or Blisters are indicated, embracing perfectly the remedial effects and virtues of all the well-known Counter-Irritants, without their inconvenience, danger of blistering, or other after-injurious effects upon the skin.

Cones, or Pencils of various composition, have been brought forward within a year or two, as a means chiefly of affording relief to superficial neuralgia. Those composed of menthol, or of menthol and chloral, have been most successful. Thus far, however, they have succeeded only in small part in accomplishing the desired purpose. The most effective of them have been wanting both in power and in permanence of action. Recognizing the exceeding convenience of such a mode of applying remedial agents, we have given to the subject of Cones a most careful and elaborate investigation, to perfect a combination that shall have the required efficiency. We have, we believe, fully accomplished the purpose, and now submit to the medical profession and the public both a Rubefacient and an Anodyne Cone, which, with the necessary degree of counter-irritant action, combines the essential requisite of an efficient anodyne power.

A YOUNG mother in despair of ever teaching her idle little girl, aged four, her letters, and thinking that perhaps the child knew more than she would admit, said : "Now, Katie, I won't try to teach you to-day ; you shall be mother and teach me my letters." "May I really and truly be mother ?" said Kate. "Yes, my darling." Let's begin, then," was the response. "You have been a very good child to-day, and you may have a whole holiday." And Katie shut up the book and ran off laughing.

A CHICAGO man committed suicide, because he found his business increasing so rapidly that he feared he wouldn't be able to manage it. His business was dodging officers of the law.

"You tell me you have not been drinking, when I see beer all over your shirt bosom." "Judge, (hic) that don't come from (hic) drinking beer ; that comes from spilling beer."
