By being located out of the high rent district we are always in a position to sell at lower prices than our competitors. C. B. Pidgeon, Corner Main and Bridge streets

A meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary Division No. 1, A. O. U. W., will take place this evening in the rooms of the society, 1014 King St. The lottery in connection with the building fund will be drawn at this meeting.

The meeting of the executive of the Inter-Society League which was announced for Saturday evening was postponed indefinitely. As the season opens on May 21st and the teams need at least three weeks' practice, something towards organization will have to be done immediately.

Bishop Richardson, who has recovered from his recent slight indisposition, held two confirmation services in the city yesterday. In the morning twelve candidates were confirmed in St. Paul's Valley church, and in the afternoon in St. James' church. At both services, the bishop delivered inspiring and eloquent addresses to very large congregations.

Party leaving the city has a very desirable flat to rent in good locality, rent reasonable with carpets and stoves for sale cheap—would sell at a price for sale cheap—would sell all the furniture which is practically new at a bargain. This is an excellent chance for a young married couple. Address Box 400, Star office.

Much sympathy was felt for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Halpin in the death of their son Charles on Saturday. The little fellow, who was a bright boy of 3 years, was on a visit to his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Halpin, 21 Kimball street, when he contracted a cold about two weeks ago. Complications set in and he passed away Saturday night. The funeral takes place this afternoon from his grandparents' residence.

John Adair, Jr., business representative of the Harder-Hall Stock Company, arrived in the city on Saturday night from New York and today will start "billing" his attractions which will appear in the opera house for two weeks, commencing Monday, April 23. The Harder-Hall Stock Company, it is said, is an entirely new idea, as they give their repertoire of comedy with the aid of a chorus of young ladies. The company will sail from New York on Tuesday and arrive here on Saturday afternoon.

The marriage of Miss Lena J., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Leachler, of Dorchester, to James William Wickwire, of Boston, will take place on Wednesday, April 22, at the residence of the bride's father, 21 Tonawanda street, Dorchester, Mass. The bride formerly lived in St. John, and many friends here will be interested in the wedding announcement. Mrs. E. W. Henry, of St. John, sister of Miss Leachler, left on the steamer Captain Austin Saturday evening to attend the wedding.

Word was received here on Saturday from Cambridge, Mass., of the death of Drusilla, wife of Albert Ritchie, formerly of this city. Mrs. Ritchie was a daughter of the late Thomas and Phoebe Golding, of Wickham, Queens Co., N. B. Deceased leaves besides her husband one son Walter, one sister, Mrs. Jones, of Moncton, N. B., two brothers, Stephen E. and A. Wallington Golding, of this city. Interment will be on Tuesday at Cambridge, Mass.

PROTESTANT ORPHAN ASYLUM ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

The treasurer gratefully acknowledges receipt of the following subscriptions:—

Hainington, A. W. Sharp, E. F. Charlton and Co., each $2; Dr. C. F. Gorman, R. G. Murray, T. Collins and Co., H. L. and G. T. McDowen, Dr. G. O. Hamish, H. A. Allison, Wm. Peters, Mrs. A. Binning, Jos. Clawson, Mrs. John Chamberlain, Dr. W. F. Roberts, D. H. Willett, Mrs. H. E. Ellis, each $1; P. Shaw, A. Friend, each 50 cents.

PREACHERS MEETINGS

The Methodist preachers' meeting was held this morning at ten o'clock in the parlors of Centenary church. Rev. Neil McLaughlin presided.

Reports of churches for the last two weeks were received. A communication from W. G. Watson, of Mt. Allison University was presented to the meeting. The educational fund of the Methodist church proposes to render aid to any independent or semi-independent circuit during the summer months by paying a part of the salary of the theological student in the ministry in the St. John district, wishing the services of a student during the summer can communicate with the chairman of the district, Rev. Jas. Crisp.

Some of the ministers reported special services followed by good results. The visitor to the General Public Hospital this week is Rev. C. W. Sullivan.

Total Product of American logs: $327,900.24

Decrease: $537,185.54

There was a decrease of some $60,000 in products of American logs; $70,000 in wood pulp, owing to the closing of the Mitsui mills; last year $1,000,000 to the value of $37,000 was shipped and none this year; laths show a falling off of $800,000; $40,000; hides, $23,000 and other items in proportion. General depression is the cause of the falling off.

IN THE COURTS

This morning in the Equity Court before Chief Justice Barker the case of Partridge vs. Randolph, which has been before the courts for four years, was further continued. The lawyers in the case are Mr. J. H. Barry, and Mr. Tweedie, of Fredericton, and Dr. A. O. Earle and A. P. Barnhill. The case will be argued to the Supreme Court of Canada this term.

In the case of Douglas vs. The City, which arose out of a written contract for the price the city would pay for the plaintiff's land expropriated in connection with the laying of the pipe line, a settlement will be announced next Monday. Mr. Douglas agreed to accept $300 from the city, but he claimed that he was not in a proper state of mind when he signed the agreement. The city will now pay him $600. Mr. H. D. Forbes appears for the plaintiff.

COUNTY COURT

In the County Court this morning before Judge Forbes the prisoner McCallaghan, who was sent up for trial by Mr. Justice Masson for stealing a coat and a pair of boots, was allowed to go on suspended sentence of two years in Dorchester. The prisoner, who has a wooden leg, pleaded guilty and stated that he had been drinking prior to the time he committed the theft. He said that he belonged to St. George and would leave the city immediately. The judge gave him twenty-four hours in which to carry out his intention.

PROBATE COURT

Estate of Caroline Wills. Petition of Robert Wills, one of the administrators to remove his co-administratrix, Ella Ellison, she having removed from this jurisdiction and having neglected to render an account. Citation ordered as per returnable Monday, 11th May, Hon. H. A. McKeown, K.C. proctor.

PERSONAL

Mr. Daniel Monahan, the Charlotte street boot and shoe merchant left this morning by train for Maine, on a business trip.

Miss Mabel Driscoll who was taken ill while studying nursing at St. John's hospital, Lowell, and her mother Mrs. M. J. Driscoll, who went to Lowell to be with her, returned home on Saturday. Miss Driscoll has fully recovered.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCallum, Water street, West, was gladened Tuesday, April the seventh, by the arrival of a little daughter.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary T. T. was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her daughter's residence, 22 High street. Rev. Mr. Howard conducted the services. Interment was made in Fernhill cemetery.

The funeral of the late George W. Halpin took place today at 2:30 o'clock from his grandfather's residence, 21 Kimball street. Interment was made in the old Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Kate Quinlan was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of Mr. W. A. Quinlan, Manawagouah Road, Rev. A. G. Graham conducted the services. Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

Captain Pitt, of Gondola Point, has the cable stretched for a cable boat at Gondola Point for a ferry service. The cable is 2500 feet long and made expressly for the purpose. It will stand a strain of ten tons. The machinery is all complete. The ferry will run from Gondola Point directly across to the Kineston side. The dimensions of the new boat are 42 feet long, 16 1/2 feet beam, 3 feet depth. It is capable of carrying about eight tons.
